

MOTHER KULAK

By WALTER KLYMKIW

Leaves carpeted the earth. Their progenitors, the trees, stood tenant- less—stretching their naked limbs skyward, greedily grasping for life-giving warmth...

Her Ivan was a thoughtful husband. It is true, he was not exceedingly bright or clever, but he cared for her. That was the important thing...

SOUTH ANTHRACITE REGION UKRAINIAN BASKETBALL LEAGUE ORGANIZED

During the weekend of October 16th, the initial organizational meeting of the South Anthracite Region Ukrainian Basketball League was held.

Present at this confab were St. Clair, Shamokin, McAdoo, Beaver Meadows and Berwick. Sport Director Michael Yankovig of 149 S. Shamokin Street, Shamokin, Pa. reports that play will commence around the middle of November and will terminate in mid-February.

SPORTE DEPARTMENT UYL-NA

Youth and the U.N.A.

CHESTER GIRL LEAVES FOR JAPAN

Miss Helen Terashowska, daughter of Michael and Julia Terashowska of Chester, Pa., left on September 23rd for Japan where she will accept a position as a civilian employee of the United States Government...

A graduate of Penn State College, where she received a B.A. degree in business administration, Miss Terashowska was active as the social chairman of Alpha Xi Delta, national sorority, and secretary of Alpha Rho Omega, the business fraternal organization.

NOT TO BE CONFUSED

A couple of weeks ago, at a dance in Elizabethtown, N. J., the writer was introduced to a young man; the conversation turned to the U. N. A., and young man stated that he was not a member of the organization...

WEEKLY BANTER

This is a woman's world. When a man is born people ask, "How is the mother?" When he marries they exclaim, "What a lovely bride!"

Desperately in need of fifty-cents, the timid husband finally got up enough courage to open his pay envelope before taking it home to his wife. Surprised at the contents, he hurried back to the cashier.

ATTENTION! — AKRON — CLEVELAND — YOUNGSTOWN — ROSSFORD and LOCALITY!

UKRAINIAN SPORT NOTES

By WALTER W. DANKO

Football once again has the limelight as far as sports news is concerned, and the Ukrainians are right up there with the very best of them.

Bernie Babula sprinted 76 yards across the goal line on the first play of the second quarter to help his Cornell University team beat Princeton, 14 to 12.

Frank Kuzma of Minnesota was the beat running back of the day as his team dropped a very close one to Michigan by the score of 14 to 7.

Fred Sowick of Rutgers played a great game for Duquesne in their loss to Villanova. Altho he should not feel too badly, the individual star for the Wildcats was passing star Steve Romanik of Millville, N. J.

Walt Pastuzak passed his Brown University team to a 48 to 0 victory over Lehigh which was centered by Mike Murray of Sayre, Pa.

Ed Lisak played a terrific game of fullback for Oklahoma in their drubbing of Nebraska University.

Ted Dostanko of Paterson, N. J. played great ball for North Carolina State in their loss to Maryland.

Fullback Johnnie Papit of Philadelphia paced his team to a 32 to 13 victory over V.M.I.

John Natyshak of Youngstown played a good game at tackle for Florida University in their loss to powerful Georgia Tech.

Center, Ray Malowitz of Army, who hails from Garfield, N. J., was outstanding in his teams victory over Harvard.

All interested readers are invited to send in the names of any Uke college grid stars to the writer

"LEAP TO FREEDOM"

(Concluded from page 2)

sonnel abroad. By good fortune she was appointed, and she left her native land with a vague and tremulous hope that the world might be different outside.

In New York City Mrs. Kasenkina was assigned to teach the children of the "Soviet aristocracy." But here, too, the long-reaching hand of the NKVD did not leave her in peace, despite the fact that she was a gifted and efficient teacher.

Despite the ever-present Soviet spies, now and then Mrs. Kasenkina had opportunities to observe how the American people live. Rapidly becoming enamored of America, she dreamt of escaping and staying here forever.

It should be remembered that the U.N.A. has close to 55,000 members, many of whom are active in other organizations.

Concluding, we wish to stress that the Ukrainian National Association is indeed worthy of the support of all persons of Ukrainian descent because it is non-partisan and is willing to cooperate with all other worthy organizations where the promulgation of fraternalism is concerned.

for the coming edition of the Ukrainian All American College Football Team. Thank you.

Pete Karpuk of Toronto, Canada is slated to try-out with the Brooklyn Dodgers this coming Spring. Not only is he a great chucker but he is also a great shortstop and hitter.

Ukes in pro football... are continually increasing in number. The Philly Eagles have Joe Maha, George Savitsky and Charlie Bednarik; the Washington Redskins have Mike Katrishen, Joe Tereshinsky and John Badaczewski.

The St. Johnstmen did not find the New Yorkers a pushover, however, for their two winning games were garnered by close scores.

Excitement ran high in the match between the fourth place Irvington Ukrainian Eagles and the St. George Catholic War Veterans of New York when the first game ended in a tie score.

The 1949-50 Hockey Season is now under way and quite a few new Ukrainian boys have broken into the game.

anywhere else. Her father, writes Mrs. Kasenkina, "would play haunting Ukrainian melodies," while her mother would sing the well-known stanzas from the popular Ukrainian operetta, Zaporozhets za Dunayem.

While she was in Roosevelt Hospital fighting for her life, President Truman expelled Consul Lomakin and his assistants from this country as persons non gratae.

After a few days of incarceration in the Soviet Consulate, Mrs. Kasenkina valiantly decided to try once again for freedom.

This would hardly serve as an excuse to hold a "grudge" against the fraternal order a whole.

Of all the books on the Soviet Union, Leap to Freedom especially should be read by every American of Ukrainian descent.

The Ukrainian Elements in "Leap to Freedom"

WILKES-BARRE, PA!

RECORDS MELT AS U.N.A. BOWLERS

SIZZLE

By STEPHEN KURLAK

The ten-pin boys were really "hot" last week at Tarlowe's Recreation Academy in Jersey City, judging by the tally sheets of the U.N.A. Bowling League of the Metropolitan N.J.-N.Y. Area.

To really appreciate the intensity of the matches, however, one had to be present and listen to the din of excited voices rising above the clatter of the tumbling ten-pins.

The St. Johnstmen did not find the New Yorkers a pushover, however, for their two winning games were garnered by close scores.

Excitement ran high in the match between the fourth place Irvington Ukrainian Eagles and the St. George Catholic War Veterans of New York when the first game ended in a tie score.

anywhere else. Her father, writes Mrs. Kasenkina, "would play haunting Ukrainian melodies," while her mother would sing the well-known stanzas from the popular Ukrainian operetta, Zaporozhets za Dunayem.

UKRAINIAN NATIONAL ASSOCIATION BOWLING LEAGUE

Team Standings table with columns: Team, Won, Lost, Game, High, Pins, Aver.

anywhere else. Her father, writes Mrs. Kasenkina, "would play haunting Ukrainian melodies," while her mother would sing the well-known stanzas from the popular Ukrainian operetta, Zaporozhets za Dunayem.

In describing the village of Bezabotovka, the native place of her husband Demyan, Mrs. Kasenkina pays tribute to the Ukrainian cher-

Post Convention DANCE sponsored by UKRAINIAN GIRL'S AUXILIARY at UKRAINIAN NATIONAL HOME 1317 W. Fayette Street, Syracuse, N. Y. Saturday, November 5, 1949 9 P.M. to? Music by MELODY KNIGHTS WE'LL BE SEEING ALL OF YOU

WILKES-BARRE, PA! Youth of U. N. A. presents... THIRD ANNUAL BANQUET Honoring the Acting Supreme President of U.N.A. SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1949, AT 6:30 P.M. SS. PETER AND PAUL AUDITORIUM, 633 N. RIVER STREET. Proceeds go to Charity. Tickets may be obtained from: Mildred Dobranski, 530 N. Pennsylvania Ave.; Mary Slawich, 56 Wayne St.; or Stella Iwaniv, 600 N. Main Street, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

