services and promised to take an active part in making this undertaking an outstanding success. Featured on this massive program will be the outstanding personalities in Ukrainian American life, men who have actually fought against the terror of Red oppression...

UCCA Warns of Soviet Tactics

On October 31, 1950 the Ukrainian Congress Committee of America, ever mindful of the devious moves and stratagems of the Soviets, urged President Truman to help balk a Soviet parliamentary maneuver which would keep the United States from condemning genocide at the U. N.

would bar from the Genocide Convention any nation that did not approve it in full detail. Since the American position on the convention contains several reservations, the resolution would thus bar the United States. The Committee asked President Truman to help gain a postponement of the effective date of the resolution so that it would not affect American ratification of the convention.

"No Atomic Bombs for Kiev or Odessa"

Mr. John F. Stewart, head of the Scottish League for European Freedom, writes in a letter to "The Scotsman": "I never believed in the effectiveness of the atomic bomb against Russia, and I would protest against the indiscriminate use of it. I want to point out that Kiev is the capital of Ukraine, and Odessa the largest Ukrainian port. I have no doubt that when Ukraine regains its independence, the people would like to have their cities unharmed."

dependence, the people would like to have their cities unharmed. Now the Ukrainians are ready to cooperate with the West in order to challenge the Russian menace. If we would atomize their beloved cities, they will be embittered, and without their help we would never be able to overcome the Russian terror over the world. The same may be applied to other peoples enslaved by Soviet Russia."

UKRAINE TROUBLE CENTER

"The National News-Letter," founded and edited by Stephen King-Hall, reported on the unrest in Ukraine in its May 18, 1950 issue:

that date, three out of ten of the provinces had not begun sowing operations; the others had only completed 4% instead of 90% of what should have been done by the middle of April.

"For some months rumors have been coming westward that all is not well in the Ukrainian Republic of the USSR. The "Manchester Guardian" has now drawn attention to the fact that on 15 April 1950 an amazingly frank account of what has been happening was published in "Zvezda," the official organ of the local Communist Party.

"These confessions of failure in one of the most important of the European Russian agricultural territories may mean trouble on the food front later in the year.

"This account is a frank confession of the almost total failure of the task of spring sowing. On

Hrushevsky Honored

Michael Hrushevsky, famous Ukrainian writer and historian was honored in a special program yesterday in Washington Irving High School in New York City.

Several outstanding speakers joined with the assembled guests in paying tribute to Hrushevsky.

Called by the Army

Joseph Laskow, young Ukrainian American from Bayonne, N. J. was recently inducted into the army from his local board. Long an active member of the choir of the Ukrainian Catholic Church in his community, Joseph was also one of the individuals responsible for the formation of the Ukrainian Choral Society of New Jersey.

In addition to singing with these two groups, his "contra bass" voice was heard in all three of the Ukrainian Metropolitan Areas music festivals.

To Audition For Metropolitan Opera

Henry Pritula, a Ukrainian American whose American stage name is Henry Lawrence, will be one of the young artists selected to audition on the Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air. The program will be broadcast on Tuesday, November 21, 1950, over a nationwide network.

New Jersey Chorus To Sing Carols

The Ukrainian Choral Society of New Jersey under the direction of George Kirichenko, Jr. has been requested to present a program of Ukrainian Christmas carols in Kresge's Newark Department Store. The program will be held on December 6, 1950, between the hours of 6 and 7 P.M.

Detroit Bulletin Published

The latest issue of "Operation Detroit" bulletin of the Detroit District Council has come on the presses. This month's issue is particularly attractive due to some very fine art-work and the layout in general.

A message from former president of the D.D.S. John Lomaka is featured together with a resume of the New York convention of the UYL-NA. The usual, salty "Socleda" column completes the bulletin.

New "Fox" Out

The November 15th, edition of the "Fox" has come off the presses. Featuring a wealth of satire at both newly arrived Ukrainians and the older generation ones, it makes for some most interesting and enjoyable reading.

The cartoons of Edward Kozak as always are an outstanding feature or the periodical. In this particular issue they more than stand out as works of true satirical art.

Ukrainian D.P. Student Receives Scholarship

Michael Budnyk, young Ukrainian displaced person won a scholarship in Amherst, Mass. Previously of study is in the field of agricultural chemistry.

At present he is the only D.P. student on the campus but this has not deterred him from making a place for himself. Besides writing articles for the University paper about life under the Soviets, conditions of displaced persons students in Austria, he has won the respect of the faculty and student body alike.

Michael Budnyk

ously Mr. Budnyk was enrolled at the University in Graz, Austria. After passing all the required examinations he was admitted to the Massachusetts school of learning as a senior. His major course

The cold, forlorn misery of winter warfare has once again been imposed upon the fighting men of the United States Armed Forces. Short bleak days, filled with long raw blasts of winds and snow are buffeting the U. S. Forces.

through but can't wash. What for? You'd only freeze to death in the process. So you roll out of your sack in the morning, stiff, cold and disgusted. You move forward, after biting into your cold ration, up to your post. Funny isn't it? You, why you're supposed to be a fine clean cut American soldier, full of high ideals fighting for the United Nations.

ON CHANGING NAMES

"Good name, in man or woman, is the immediate jewel of their souls.—Who steals my purse steals trash; but he that filches from me my good name, robs me of that which no thief can steal, and makes me poor indeed." Shakespeare.

then let us make them regret that prejudice. If there are people who can't pronounce our names properly; they let us teach them. If there are some who would mock our names, then they will mock all men and all names.

Why is it such men as Eisenhower, Impellitteri, Mitropoulos, or Rosenman have not changed or simplified their names? A name is given to us at birth. It may be a challenge, a cross or a blessing. Certainly it is not always a simple task to pronounce some of our Ukrainian names. Spelling them it beyond recognition, these are ways chosen by ignorant people. The so called "easy way," which in the long run, is usually the most difficult. A change in spelling so that the name may be more easily pronounced, will often suffice for most people.

A SUGGESTION

Time and time again we have stressed the importance of sending in news items, personal items and creative material to "The Weekly." In the regular U.N.A. column have appeared numerous pleas, admonishments, and arguments for sending in material to this paper.

always ready to give that opportunity to each and every aspiring and perspiring writer. Lastly, we would urge that all member organizations of the Ukrainian National Association, and in particular the youth branches, specify that the branch secretary be responsible for mailing in the minutes or excerpts from the club's minutes to the "Ukrainian Weekly."

Several weeks ago we started our new poet's corner. To date one young person has taken advantage of it. Accordingly a copy of Ivan Franko's Life and Works was sent out to that writer. There are many more people who read the "Weekly" and possess the ability to write. They would do well to send their material in for publication.

As has been so often stated, the "Weekly" is your paper. You can make it interesting and you can make it grow. It has no official party line, it has always taken pride in the fact that people can express themselves through it. If you are of Ukrainian descent, you owe it to yourself to read and write to the "Ukrainian Weekly."

ONLY 29 MORE DAYS

That is all there is left until Christmas 1950. Already, the eager beaver enterprizers have begun playing their mechanical carols and millions of show windows are being decorated in traditional red, green and white.

with God's help and the aid of their rifles and tanks the men in Korea will make out well also. We sincerely hope so and pray that if only for a fleeting moment they may know "peace on earth" and a bit of the wonderful bedlam that precedes it.

People are beginning to think in terms of buying: gifts, necessities, luxuries and cards. The American world goes topsy turvy within the following 29 days and what fun it is! The postman resigns himself to his inevitable fate and plods on. The delivery man goes to bed just a bit earlier in the hope of preparing himself for the forthcoming ordeal.

that precedes it. In their individual tents, fox holes and trenches we know they will. For no matter how rough things may become, the boys never really do forget to celebrate Christmas in one way or another.

"VATRA" CHORUS DEBUT

The famed "Vatra" Chorus under the direction of Lev Turkevych gave its debut performance on Wednesday, November 15, 1950. The concert was held in the large Civic Auditorium in Winnipeg, Canada.

A program of liturgical and secular music was featured, Modern composers, old folk songs and present day songs of the Insurgent Army were also highlighted by the full length program.
