

Our Bounden Duty

It seems to me that persons of my generation, American born Ukrainians, still do not appreciate enough the importance of belonging to the Ukrainian National Association.

Post UYL-NA Sports Rally In Rochester

During the UYL-NA Sports Rally banquet in Rochester on April 26th, our honored guest, Mr. Mike Mazurki passed the remark that he would have liked to have Ukrainian Dishes for his meal.

"SVOBODA" (UKRAINIAN DAILY) FOUNDED 1893

Ukrainian newspaper published daily except Sundays and holidays by the Ukrainian National Association, Inc. 81-83 Grand St. Jersey City 3, N. J.

IS RUSSIAN PROPAGANDA IN THE U.S. CONCEALING A KEY PROBLEM?

Read the answer by Dr. Roman Smal-Stocki who is in a position to know...

The NATIONALITY PROBLEM in the SOVIET UNION and RUSSIAN COMMUNIST IMPERIALISM

Dr. Smal-Stocki, a Ukrainian scholar, points out the fact that in imperial Russia the non-Russian nationalities constituted a majority of 57% of the population.

The Bruce Publishing Company, Milwaukee 1, Wisconsin

Rochester Crowns Ukrainian Beauty Queen

Patricia Navirny

At the annual spring dance held by St. Annes Sodality, Br. 343 of the U.N.A., the annual selection of the Ukrainian Beauty Queen was held.

Miss Navirny was born in to Nick Navirny and Olga Cymbalist Navirny. She attended the Holy Family grammar school and is presently an honorary student at the Nazareth Academy.

...a member of branch 343 of U. N. A. Miss Navirny hopes to someday become an officer in her branch.

WILLIAM POPOWYCH

A Cosy Little World

(Concluded from page 2)

He played with us—hide-and-seek, hopscotch, football, but he always remained aloof from the gang, like a being apart.

Everything was simple, yes, but I could not have been awed more if I had been ushered into the King's palace.

This Summer Spend Your Vacation at American Ukrainian Resort Center, Inc.

GLEN SPEY, N. Y.

Glen Spey is a quiet village on the western side of the Catskill Mountains, 1800 ft. above sea-level, in New York State's Sullivan County.

Our estate of 168 acres includes many hotel-style buildings with single and adjoining rooms. Most of these rooms are with showers, hot and cold running water, and are ready for renting to vacationers by the week or week-end.

Our restaurant, with a modern kitchen, is capable of accommodating up to 300 persons; and the very best of meats and fresh vegetables will be served, with American and Ukrainian menus.

Entertainment for those who desire round-the-clock activities will be found at our recreation house, situated far enough away from the lodge building so that those who desire the peace and quiet of the mountains will not be disturbed.

Every week guest-talent concerts, exhibitions, movies and dances will be arranged.

Swimming and boating on our 10-acre lake and beautiful sandy beach will be under the guidance of a life guard.

Many outdoor sports such as: horseback riding, hiking, tennis, shuffleboard, bowling, baseball games, and so forth.

Motoring over fine New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania Mountain roads gives you ample opportunity to visit numerous places of historic interest.

For reservations and rates write to: AMERICAN UKRAINIAN RESORT CENTER, Inc. Glen Spey, New York

Young Soloist to Be Heard at Jersey City Concert

Frank Narucki, 17 year old clarinetist, of Jersey City, Howard Lebow, 16 year old pianist from West New York, both Ukrainian, and Rosemary Gonella, 16 year old soprano from Jersey City, chief winners in the recent Annual County-Wide Music Auditions sponsored by the Musical Art Club of Hudson County.

Mr. Narucki, a recent graduate from Ferris High School, and Mr. Lebow, a senior in Memorial High School W.N.Y., were the winners of $500.00 scholarships to the Juilliard School of Music in New York.

Winners of the Incentive High School Gold Medal Award, offered to the senior who, in the opinion of the faculty is the most outstanding in music and most deserving of the award were—Bayonne-Sweeney High School, Richard Aslanian, pianist; Jersey City-Dickenson High School, Donald Perlow, organ; Ferris High School, Gene Wisniewski, clarinet and Anthony La Magra, pianist; Lincoln High School, Howard Rauch, clarinet; Snyder High School, Edward Blatt, tenor.

they are affected by the books they read.

A World of Simple Pleasures I came to the conclusion that Andrusko's father was trying to perpetuate a world that he had left behind in old Ukraine—the tight little, snug little world of simple pleasures and few occupations.

And so I was a peep into a world as distant to my own as though it were across the ocean. In later years, when this family had moved away from our district, I often came to think of it, and I wanted to find some logical explanation for it, as most people do when actually seen what happened, but so many people brought the account to me that I must regard it as true.

The epilogue to this tale may seem incongruous. I haven't

Ukrainian Sport Notes

By WALTER W. DANKO

Iron Man Harry Dorish

Whenever the White Sox get into an extra inning ball game, it is a good bet to call on Harry Dorish for relief pitching duty.

And who do you think won the next longest one? Dorish did, topping the Browns, 7 to 4 in 14 innings, and holding them to one hit in five innings of scoreless relief pitching on April 27.

Dorish became the winner of this season's longest game by scattering eight hits and yielding but one run, a 14th-inning homer by fellow Ukrainian Steve Souchock.

Tom Mikula will be a football assistant at the College of William and Mary next year. For the second year in a row, St. John's pivot ace Bob Zawoluk has been named recipient of the 1951-52 Lt. Frank C. Haggerty Award, which goes to the year's outstanding Redman athlete.

The Struggle for Greatness

By OSYP TURIANSKY

Translated from the Ukrainian by Adam Huldj

(Continued)

The beer turned the conversation in another direction. Atanas Zakamarsky, who liked to work around his household, painted this picture before their eyes:

"Gentlemen, our deceased parson, may God give him a place in Heaven, was a first class farmer. Sometimes, it happened that you would peep through a crevice the fence to see what was going on in the parochial household.

Briefs

"The Time of the Assassins" written by Godfrey Blunden (375 pages) is a book dealing with Ukrainian nationalism and its effect on the people of Kharkiv during the recent German-Communist Russian war.

Henry Mosychnk, top Massachusetts University basketball star this past season, is of Ukrainian ancestry. His parents are former denizens of Volynskaya Gubernia, Ukraine.

According to statisticians, another record has been chalked up for Terry Sawchuk, Detroit Red Wings' brilliant goaltender.

FIFTH ANNUAL CONVENTION Ukrainian-American Veterans

June 7-8 HENRY HUDSON HOTEL 57th Street & 9th Avenue, New York City

PROGRAM:

FRIDAY, JUNE 6: Evening: Registration at Henry Hudson Hotel Post Registration $10 Individual Registration: $2

SATURDAY, JUNE 7: Morning: Registration 1 p.m.—U.A.V. Business Sessions Henry Hudson Hotel 7 p.m.—Banquet & Dance Grand Ballroom, Henry Hudson Hotel.—Admission: $7.50 9 p.m.—Dance only Admission: $2.00

SUNDAY, JUNE 8: Morning—Church services 1 p.m.—U.A.V. Election of New Officers Meeting of U.A.V. Ladies Auxiliary 6 p.m.—Farewell Party

For Information write: U.A.V. CONVENTION COMMITTEE 80 St. Mark's Place, New York, N. Y.

REAL ESTATE

Call us if you want to buy or sell:

One or two family houses, Apartment houses Farms, Summer resorts, Bungalows, Business opportunities.

WALTER SHIPKA

100 — 2nd Avenue, bet. 5 & 6th Sts., New York, N. Y. Open week days to 9 p.m. — Sat. & Sun. to 5 p.m.

REAL ESTATE SALESMAN

Good commission paid. — Experience preferred, not necessary. — Will teach you the business. Must have auto.

WALTER SHIPKA

100 — 2nd Avenue, bet. 5 & 6th Sts., New York, N. Y. GRamercy 3-6761.

