

THE USSR: ITS STRENGTH AND ITS WEAKNESS

(Excerpts)

Address by Former U. S. Senator William Benton at Conference of Institute for Study of the USSR - Carnegie Center, New York, April 28, 1956.

Many among us here today ask how long will the Soviet people allow themselves to be exploited mercenarily...

age, that it doesn't take a royal flush to beat two of a kind.

The Problem of Soviet Youth

And now what of the Soviet youth, what of the new surging millions who are about to get on years of compulsory schooling...

And what of Soviet agriculture? Shall we overestimate its progress while we underestimate its difficulties? Suppose the rains do not come in Kazakhstan again...

ETHNIC GROUPS IN THE U.S.A.

AN ACTION PROGRAM FOR FOREIGN LANGUAGE TEACHERS

Groups Organized Around Ethnic Origins

The existence of an appreciable number of organizations based on ethnic origins and representing the leadership as well as promoting the survival of the group's cultural wealth is an incontrovertible fact...

The Foreign Press

Perhaps the most important medium of communication constantly reaching the different ethnic groups is the extensive Foreign Press in the United States. It is suggested that this comprises another vast and relatively unexploited resource for the language teacher...

The wide variety of these nationality organizations, although making it difficult to classify them, indicates that an investigation of their educational and cultural resources would certainly be worth our while.

Once the way is opened, it is suggested that all current and available sources of communication be exploited in order to disseminate the appropriate information bulletins, the FL national and state bulletins and newsletters...

SEN. KNOWLAND ADDRESS

Of this I am certain. If the men in the Kremlin change from their smiles to frowns and in the future embark upon aggression we may find our stoutest allies behind the Iron Curtain rather than in front of it.

UYL-NA CORNER Pre-Convention Dance

The UYL-NA Executive Board will hold a quarterly meeting over the June 16-17, 1956 weekend at the Hotel Statler in Buffalo, N. Y. where many details, including Buffalo Labor Day Convention plans, will be thrashed out.

In conjunction with this weekend meeting, the UYL-NA Executive Board, headed by the fine Canadian Ukrainians, will sponsor a Pre-Convention Dance at the Ukrainian Home - Dnipro at 562 Genesee St. in Buffalo 2 weeks hence...

The hope is expressed here that this dance will have a fine turnout of Ukrainian youth from all areas, with close-by regions naturally in heavy predominance.

Wilmington, Del. Last week we had the pleasure of attending the 9th annual UOL Convention at Wilmington's fine Hotel DuPont.

It was one of the very best Ukrainian conventions that we have ever attended and we were very happy to see so many people both (Orthodox and non-Orthodox) who came out to really enjoy themselves along a fine bunch of Ukrainians in the true spirit of brotherhood.

While this was a religious convention, we were quite pleased with the Ukrainian divertones everywhere in Wilmington.

Human freedom is a greater force than tyranny and if those of us who believe in freedom will not condone and appear to support or approve tyrannical governments a way will inevitably be found for the captive people to strike off their shackles.

I am convinced that a true peace with honor depends upon the spreading of freedom and not its contraction. I opened these brief remarks with a quotation from Abraham Lincoln, to carry out the bipartisan sponsorship and tone of the gathering.
