Ukraine Represented at FIPEX

by Jeanette-Yaroslava Kovaluk

The Fifth International Philatelic Exhibit, better known as FIPEX, opened, along with the automobile and photography shows, on Saturday, April 28th at the recently completed New York City Coliseum...

as Ukrainian overprints and postal stationary.

All the stamps used by the Ukrainians had a trident overprint on a picture of the Russian emperor Nicholas. Typewritten explanatory sheets stated that the handstamped trident overprint was designed in 1918 by the artist Vasily Fedorovich Krichevsky...

The following three books on Ukrainian philately that were mentioned along with the preceding information should throw much light on a moderately explored section of stamp collecting: Postage Stamps of Ukraine by D.E. Armstrong; Trident Issues of Ukraine by A. W. Greaves and C.W. Roberts; and the U.P.V. German Sonder-Katalog Ukraine, 1918-1920.

Close to the U.S. Post Office stamp printing plant, enclosed in large glass display cases in the Eastern European section, was the Russian collection of a Dr. Gregory B. Salisbury of Philadelphia. Included in this collection were some stamps used by the Ukrainian National Government after World War I.

Unfortunately, I did not see the specialized Ukrainian collection (Concluded on page 3)

Commemorate 1000 Years of Christianity

The Procession

The parish of St. Michael's Ukrainian Catholic Church of Hartford, Connecticut, commemorated 1,000 years of Christianity in Ukraine, on Sunday June 10th with religious services at St. Peter's church in the morning and a concert at the Bulkeley High School in the afternoon.

The concert at Bulkeley was presided over by Michael J. Nagurny, of Stamford. Speakers were Congressman Thos. Dodd, Mayor Joseph Cronin, Dr. Robert Mahoney, assistant superintendent of Hartford schools, and Prof. O. Ohloblin, of the University of Kiev.

The Ukrainian Cultural Courses at the "Soyuzivka"

Summer courses, be they in Grammar schools, High schools, or Colleges, are part of the American educational system. They are intended for either the pupil or student to make up for lost time...

In most cases it means trudging, bus or subway riding to school or college during the hot summer days, and returning home to do homework in the sultry weather.

All of this is in vivid contrast with the Ukrainian Cultural Courses being offered to Ukrainian American youth by the Ukrainian National Association at its "Soyuzivka," otherwise known as the UNA Estate, located in the Catskill Mountains, near Kerhonkson, New York.

For here studies are combined with a well rounded out vacation.

After classes and some homework in the very comfortable living quarters, which the "Soyuzivka" provides in its dormitory and villa buildings, the student can truly relax and take full advantage of all the vacation facilities which this resort provides. He or she can go swimming in the pool, rowing in the pond, hiking up and down the mountain along old Indian trail, wade and even swim in the upper stretches of a broad mountain stream...

Certainly, there can be no comparison with all this and the home-sitting in the city, laden with heat and humidity. As for the Ukrainian Cultural Summer Courses, they are truly most interesting.

The courses are being given under the pedagogical protectorate of the Free Ukrainian University, the only one in the world, located in Munich, Germany.

The instructors are men highly qualified, experienced in teaching, and having very sympathetic understanding of the problems and attitudes of the students.

They unfold before the students marvelous vistas of all the facets of their Ukrainian cultural heritage, literature, music, fine and folk arts, to mention but a few.

They teach the Ukrainian language, oral, written and printed in a manner which definitely is not dull and which produces great results.

Once the student has completed the courses and has graduated, he or she returns home a much wiser person, and proud of the fact that he is an American of Ukrainian descent.

There is still a little time left for registration. The courses will begin August 1st and last to the end of the month. Total cost is $120. This will cover the tuition fees, meals, lodgings and the enjoyment of all vacation facilities...

Send in your registration to the UNA Estate, Kerhonkson, N. Y. (and attach to it a check for $60 as downpayment).

NEW SCHOLARSHIP OFFER FOR A CULTURAL COURSES

At a special meeting of the Executive Board of Branch 25 of the Ukrainian National Association, it was unanimously resolved to offer a scholarship to a student interested in taking the Ukrainian Cultural

FOURTH OF JULY

Next Wednesday, July 4, Americans will observe the 180th anniversary of the American Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776, when the embattled thirteen colonies united as one...

Their ardent desire to become free is best expressed in the preamble to the Declaration of Independence, the high point of which is that "all men are created equal and that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable Rights, and that among these rights are Life, Liberty and Pursuit of happiness."

That was the clarion call of the early Americans, and has been as such of the American people to this day. It has been the chief reason for the great growth of the United States of America, today the leading world power, and the bastion of human freedom and democracy throughout the whole world.

That clarion call is also that of the Ukrainian people, since the time back in 1775, a year before America became free and independent, the last stronghold of Ukrainian independence, the famed Zaporozhian Sich, was destroyed by Russia, then ruled by Catherine II.

May the day come soon when the Ukrainian people will be observing their Fourth of July, in a free and independent Ukraine.

Ukrainians "Big Hit" at Pittsburg Folk Festival

Pittsburg Ukrainians are reaping compliments from all sources for their excellent representation at Pittsburg's First Folk Festival. The Folk Festival, which featured 18 nationalities, was sponsored by Duquesne University and was held at the Syria Mosque on June 9 and 10.

Osyph Holovackyj

The Ukrainian program, staged with orchestral accompaniment and a company of 100 singers and dancers, dressed in provincial and historical Ukrainian costumes (Braznick), literally captivated the multinational audience. Frequent thunderous applause during the performance, and expressions such as "your group was the best", heard in the lobby after the show, gave the Ukrainians claim to being the "hit" of the festival.

The Christmas scene was followed by the popular Hutzul dance, Arkan, featuring such veteran (?) Hutsuls as Steve Kapeluck, Danny Pyah (new prexy of UOL), Ray Cizma, Johnson Gos, and Danny And.

To display the modern trend in Ukrainian social dress, the choir, with orchestral accompaniment, sang "Bandura" in waltz tempo, as four couples, the ladies dressed in embroidered blouses and full length black skirts and the men in tuxedos, waltzed across the stage.

The waltz was followed by a lively "Kolomeyka" with 14 young ladies, led by Miss Nadine Dworakivsky, displaying plenty of zip, vitality, and smiling lovely faces.

The choir closed the program with the number "Ptychey Chor" (Choir of the Birds) featuring Ann Komichak and Anthony Pituch as soloists.

Receives B.S. in Music, Cum Laude

Miss Elva Barabash of Chicago, graduated with honors, cum laude, on June 10, 1956, receiving a Bachelor of Music degree with piano major from the Chicago Musical College.

Elva Barabash

Miss Barabash, well known pianist in both Ukrainian and American circles, is the daughter of the outstanding and famous music educator and bandmaster John H. Barabash, professor at the Chicago City Junior College, and the former Olga Perch, school teacher of Winnipeg, Canada.

All through elementary and high school, Elva Barabash was on the honor roll. She made the High School National Honor Society, and the Phi Beta Lambda college national honor society. She entered Northwestern University School of Music on the Laverne Noyes scholarship, full tuition, which she held for three years when she left Northwestern University to study with Dr. Rudolph Ganz, pianist, composer, and conductor of international fame.

Elva made great strides in her piano work in the two years at Chicago Musical Col-

Ditson Music Award for 1954. She also won the Oliver and 1955 of $600 each, the 1956 Farwell Music Award ($350), and placed first in the National Music Teachers Guild Recording Contest ($125).

However, she is not content to stop at this point. Being serious minded and a scholar at heart Elva Barabash is going to continue studying. Her long range plan is to go to Europe after she gets her Master of Music degree at the Chicago Musical College with Dr. Rudolph Ganz, who in her estimation is the greatest teacher west of New York City and one of the greatest in the country.

Wins Scholarship to Wayne University

Miss Olga Iwachiw of Detroit won a Rotary Club Scholarship to Wayne University in Detroit, Michigan. The scholarship pays the tuition for three years which starts in September, 1956. Miss Iwachiw is already a student of Wayne University and plans to enter the law school soon.

Olga Iwachiw

In order to become eligible for the scholarship, the contestants had to write the composition on the topic "What College Education Means To Me." Then, the entries from various high schools were taken and judged. Out of the many entries, Miss Iwachiw was selected to be the winner.

She graduated from Pershing High School in January, 1956. While still attending Pershing, she received excellent grades and graduated with a "Magna Cum Laude." Miss Iwachiw was active in various activities such as debate, choir, members of the Senior Cabinet, the Senior Play, and also won the Commendation award for Critical Review as part of the Pershing Chronicle Scholastic Creative writing Awards' program for 1956.

Applicants, between the ages of 16 to 21, members of the UNA, should send a short essay on "Why I Want To Take the Cultural Courses" not later than July 15th to the Branch Secretary, Miss Josephine Gibbons, c/o Svoboda, 83 Grand Street, Jersey City, N. J.
