no central representation of the Ukrainian students units, e.g. Ukrainian Student Association (U.S.H.) of Paris.

Extra-ordinary members are world co-ordinating bodies of the various Ukrainian student organizations, such as confessional and ideological. Examples of these are:
(a) Central body of Ukrainian Student Associations for National Solidarity (O.U.A.K. Zarevo), and
(b) Central organization of Ukrainian Catholic Students (F.U.S.K. Obnova).

The membership of all central representations of Ukrainian student organizations other than professional student associations purports to centralize the whole organized Ukrainian students' life all over the world, and to co-ordinate their respective activities and functions, and especially actions on the international student forums.

Associated members of CESUS are: the Federation of Ukrainian Student Organizations of America (SUSTA), with its central office in New York, and the Ukrainian Canadian University Students' Union (SUSK), head office of which is located in Montreal.

Daria Antochy—Ukrainian Linguist At University of Minnesota

MNNEAPOLIS, Minn.—Daria Antochy is an attractive brown-haired coed who will graduate from the University of Minnesota next fall. Daria also is a native of Chernivtsi in Bukovina where she lived until her family was forced to flee when she was three years old.

Marie Antochy

The daughter of the Very Rev. Nicholas Antochy, pastor of Minneapolis St. Nicholas Carpathian Orthodox Church, Daria is majoring in Slavic languages at the University and hopes to become a language teacher after her graduation. Her classmates are much impressed by her knowledge of Ukrainian, English, German, Polish and Russian. She claims that many Ukrainians know many more languages. Her parents, she says, have an almost native fluency in Rumanian, too.

In addition to her studies at the University, Daria is prominent in student activities. She is a member or an officer in such organizations as the Ukrainian Student Club, the Eastern Orthodox Fellowship, the German Club and the Russian Literature Club. She recently was awarded an honorable mention by Theta Sigma Phi, a national fraternity for women in journalism.

Though very active in her University and community affairs, she finds time to exercise her domestic talents too. Her fellow students have come to appreciate Ukrainian dishes through her skill in the kitchen; she also enjoys needlework, ballet and folk dancing and playing the piano, and regrets the lack of time for her many interests outside of school.

UKRAINIAN NATIONAL YOUTH FEDERATION OF CANADA

CELEBRATES 25th ANNIVERSARY

MISS NADIA NESTEROWSKY CHOSEN AS "MISS UKRAINE"

By ALEXANDER DANKO

The Ukrainian National Youth Federation (UNYF) of Canada celebrated its 25th anniversary with a convention at the Royal Hotel in Toronto last weekend, July 2-5, 1959. Delegates and guests from every part of the Dominion took part in this fine affair, as did a large Ukrainian Youth League of North America (UYL-NA) contingent representing the Rochester (N.Y.) UYL-NA Convention Committee Pennsylvania, New York and last but not least, New Jersey.

In 1934, just one year after UYL-NA was organized, a fine group of Canadian Ukrainian young men and women, bound by common ideals and loyalties, established the Ukrainian National Youth Federation of Canada. In the next quarter of a century, the UNYF, or MUN (Melodi Ukrainski Nationalisty), expanded and prospered throughout the whole of Canada, dedicating its services to Ukrainian Youth in Canada.

On the occasion of its Silver Anniversary, the UNYF of Canada rededicated itself to the Seven Beliefs:

- 1—Faith in Canada
- 2—Faith in the dignity of the individual
- 3—Faith in democratic reform
- 4—Faith in the moral principles of Christianity
- 5—Faith in cultural traditions
- 6—Faith in the liberty of all peoples
- 7—Faith in the liberty of Ukraine.

Looking toward the future, UNYF, or MUN, believes that the task undertaken by their predecessors will be continued with great vigor and vitality. Wider and more intensive activities are part of the organization's plans designed to meet the needs of Ukrainian Canadian Youth.

The "Miss Ukraine" winner was a vivacious 21 year-old Toronto secretary who also served as an Executive Member of the UNYF, Miss Nadia Nesterowsky. Thunderous ap-

UKRAINIAN EASTER EGG — AN ATTRACTION AT PENNSYLVANIA FOLK FESTIVAL

Thousands of persons attending the Kutztown (Pa.) Folk Festival during the weekend of June 27-28, visited the booth of Ukrainian Easter Egg painting and decorating. One of the finest displays of the weekend, the Ukrainian booth was manned by Mrs. Helen Pronko of Clarks Summit, Pa.; Mrs. Ann Kolody of Shamokin, Pa. and Mrs. Mildred Danchak of Coaldale, Pa.

During the course of the day, the three women demonstrated the use of the kistka and the intricate process of painting and dyeing the Ukrainian Easter Egg. The booth had been visited by thousands who stopped to watch the young ladies performing this beautiful Ukrainian art. A countless number of questions were answered by the women, and the display of over 200 eggs proved to be the awe-inspiring event of the day.

An informal panel discussion, held in the main auditorium of the Festival, and witnessed by more than 300 persons, included the three women mentioned above and moderator Mrs. Martha Best. Mrs. Kolody explained to the gathering the various meanings of the designs used by the Ukrainians in making the eggs and Mrs. Danchak explained the use of the kistkas, etc. Mrs. Pronko pointed out that the art of making Ukrainian Easter Eggs has expanded to other nationalities rather than just Ukrainian. When asked what the Ukrainian people
