

"To promote opportunities for children and youth to realize their full potential for a creative life in freedom and dignity."
D. D. Eisenhower

Address
The Ukrainian Weekly
81-83 Grand Street
Jersey City 3, N. J.
Tel. HEnderson 4-0237
Direct New York City Line
BARclay 7-4125
Ukrainian National Ass'n
Tel. HEnderson 5-8740

The Ukrainian Weekly Section

Canadian P.M. Unveils Shevchenko Monument

Historic Event of Ukrainians in Canada Witnessed by Thousands
TEACHING OF UKRAINIAN IN PROVINCIAL SCHOOLS ANNOUNCED

WINNIPEG, Canada, July 10 (Svoboda) — At 2:30 in the afternoon yesterday Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker of Canada unveiled here the monument of Taras Shevchenko, which was erected through the joint efforts of all Ukrainian Canadians united within the Ukrainian Canadian Committee. Some 50,000 persons witnessed the ceremony on the grounds of Manitoba Provincial Parliament and many more saw it on their television screens, since the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation provided coverage of the event on its nation-wide networks.

There were tears in the eyes of the participants of this historic moment, and they all sang, to the accompaniment of the orchestra, Shevchenko's "Testament".

The ceremonies started early on Sunday, July 9, with services at all Ukrainian churches in Winnipeg. This included the Mass celebrated by the Metropolitan of the Ukrainian Catholics in Canada and Archbishop of Winnipeg, Most Rev. Maxim Hermaniuk in his cathedral, and the Mass celebrated in the Ukrainian Greek Orthodox cathedral by Most Rev. Ilarion Ohienko, Metropolitan of the Ukrainian Greek Orthodox Church in Canada.

At 1:15 p.m. the parade formed on the grounds of St. Paul's College. At the head of it was the autocade bearing the dignitaries, followed by 10,000 marchers, with bands, including a Scottish pipe band. The parade proceeded up the famous Portage Avenue, decorated by two hundred Ukrainian blue and gold flags. In the first car decorated with the Canadian Ensign and a Ukrainian pennant rode the Prime Minister and Mrs. Diefenbaker. In the other cars were the Premier of Manitoba, the representative of the Queen, federal and provincial ministers, members of parliaments, the church hierarchy, and others notables.

Shevchenko Near Victoria

The parade ended at the legislature grounds where on one side of the parliament building stands the statue of Queen Victoria, who was the Empress when Canada was part of the British Empire, and on the other side, the newly-completed statue of the Ukrainian Bard. Among the persons who took part in the ceremony were thousands of children, youths, and numerous pioneers who established the Ukrainian community in Canada exactly 70 years ago now.

During the Unveiling Ceremony

First the orchestra played the national anthem, and then UCC President Msgr. Vasyl Kushnir delivered the opening remarks. Addressing personally Prime Minister Diefenbaker, Lt. Gov. Errick Willis, Premier Duff Roblin of Manitoba, Minister of Labor Michael Starr, Metropolitan Hermaniuk, Metropolitan Ohienko, and University of Manitoba President Dr. H. H. Sanderson, all of whom sat in the front row near the covered monument, Dr. Kushnir spoke both in Ukrainian and in English about Taras Shevchenko, about the monument for which the Ukrainians themselves provided the funds, about its creator, sculptor Andriy Darahan, and then handed over the metal casket with names of all contributors, which was sealed into the base of the statue.

Ukrainian in Manitoba Schools

Next to speak was Premier Roblin, who said that we have gathered to honor one of the greatest geni of all mankind, Taras Shevchenko. For although he is the greatest pride of Ukrainians, his ideals belong to all people. The Manitoba Premier also read in Ukrainian a passage of Shevchenko's "Uchitesia braty moi!" (Learn my brothers...) Ending his speech Mr. Roblin made the announcement that beginning next year the Ukrainian language will be taught in Manitoba schools on an optional basis. The announcement was met by a thunderous applause from the listeners.

Writing about this announcement The Winnipeg Tribune said, "The announcement long awaited by the Ukrainian community in Manitoba, now makes the study of Ukrainian available to students in all three prairie provinces."

The high point of the event was the unveiling of the monument. While everyone remained silent, the Prime Minister stepped to the statue and pulled the cord which first lowered the Canadian flag and then the Ukrainian flags, and revealed the familiar face of the Bard, sitting with both hands on his lap, one over a book. The head of the government and everyone else then stood at attention while the orchestra played the "Testament". Mr. Diefenbaker next addressed the gathering and said that if Shevchenko were alive today he would see that members of his freedom-loving nation were free in this country, while those in Ukraine were still denied their basic rights. By honoring this tribune of freedom, he said, we honor the nation which gave him birth.

The other speeches were delivered by the two hierarchs, with Metropolitan Hermaniuk speaking both in Ukrainian and in French, the other official language of Canada. Then the orchestra played "God Save the Queen," and the unveiling ceremony came to an end.

Immediately following the ceremony a concert was staged in the Winnipeg auditorium filled to capacity. On its program were the choir and symphony orchestra, operatic baritone Myroslav Skala-Starytsky, and actor-director Joseph Hirniak.

Tears Were in His Eyes

In the evening, the banquet was held in Hotel Marlborough, at which Prime Minister Diefenbaker delivered the main ad-

Backed by the statue of Taras Shevchenko which he has just unveiled, the Rt. Hon. John G. Diefenbaker, Prime Minister of Canada is addressing the multitudes who have gathered for the ceremony on the grounds of Manitoba Legislature in Winnipeg, Canada. Ukrainian sculptor Andriy Darahan of Brooklyn, N. Y. created the monument for the Ukrainians in Canada.

dress, and Prof. Paul Yuzyk of the University of Manitoba acted as toastmaster. Mr. Diefenbaker's speech was televised and carried on radio waves from coast to coast in Canada by the CBC. In it he said that tears were in his eyes at the unveiling of the Shevchenko statue, and then gave much praise to the freedom-loving people of Ukraine and the Ukrainian settlers in Canada, at which time he stressed the fact that Canada presents a mosaic of cultures and groups, rather than what is known as a "melting pot" of nations. He also touched on some political Scene at the Winnipeg arena where thousands of Ukrainian youths paid tribute to the Bard Taras Shevchenko on the day preceding the unveiling of his monument in the Manitoba capital. Songs, dances, gymnastic display, and recitations were part of the youth rally. Uniformed members of Plast, Ukrainian Youth Organization, and the Ukrainian Youth Association (SUM) are shown in ranks before the platform.

CONGRESSMAN O'HARA URGES ISSUANCE OF SHEVCHENKO STAMP

WASHINGTON, June 6.—"I join with countless other Americans in urging that a 'Champion of Liberty' stamp be issued in honor of Taras Shevchenko. The issuance of this stamp would be a fitting climax to this centennial, and I know many Members share this view," said the Hon. Barratt O'Hara of Illinois of the floor of the House of Representatives.

Congressman O'Hara stated that this year free men everywhere are observing the "centennial of Taras Shevchenko, the poet laureate of Ukraine and the apostle of freedom in Eastern Europe and Asia." Congress took steps last year, he said, in preparation for this centennial by passing a resolution authorizing the erection of a statue of this champion of liberty in the Nation's capital. The Illinois Congressman further said that this year President Kennedy paid tribute to the Ukrainian bard in a message to the Shevchenko Scientific Society, in which he recognized the great contribution of Shevchenko to the cultural heritage not only of Ukraine, but of the world as well.

"One cannot, of course, divorce the works of this champion of liberty," he continued, "from the aspirations and struggles of the Ukrainian and other non-Russian nations in the USSR for national freedom and independence. It is noteworthy that in the last campaign the President unequivocally stated the following: "My many statements on the freedom of all peoples and nations indicate that we cannot afford to overlook any. If you would consult the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD as far back as 1953 (Aug. 4), you will find that I have supported ideas of freedom relating to Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, Ukraine, Armenia and other captive nations. Then, as now, I have been of the firm conviction that we must do everything possible to keep alive the spirit of independence and freedom of these nations (CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, March 8, 1961)."

Congressman O'Hara concluded his statement: "There are many productive things that could be done to further the liberation struggles of these nations. Congress acted admirably on the Shevchenko Centennial and its action had a marked impact on the puppet governments and the captive peoples in the USSR. The Administration could provide the fitting climax to this year's centennial by issuing the Shevchenko 'Champion of Liberty' stamp and, in keeping with the President's conviction, demonstrate to all the captive non-Russian nations both inside and outside the Soviet Union that we honor their freedom goals by honoring the works of Shevchenko. As we all know, Shevchenko fought not only against the injustices of serfdom and Russian Czarist autocracy but also for the freedom and independence of the subjugated non-Russian nations from imperialist and colonial Russian domination. The latter continues to this day and is crucial to the security of freedom everywhere."

The many events which made up the two-day celebration in Winnipeg also included a giant rally of youth on Saturday, July 8, in the Manitoba arena. There, songs and dances by hundreds of young people were on the agenda.

Dr. Jaroslaw Padoch, and the Editor-in-Chief of Svoboda Anthony Dragan. In his speech Mr. Lesawyer "adopted" the Canadian Prime Minister for the Ukrainians, and spoke of the high regard in which he is held by the Ukrainians in the USA. The UNA President also congratulated the Ukrainian Canadians on their accomplishments, and informed them that things are well underway in the USA to erect a memorial to the poet in Washington.

CAPTIVE NATIONS WEEK CELEBRATION IN NEW YORK

MAYOR WAGNER ASSUMES CHAIRMANSHIP OF GREATER NEW YORK CAPTIVE NATIONS COMMITTEE AND WILL BE PRINCIPAL SPEAKER AT CITY HALL OBSERVANCE

NEW YORK, N. Y. — The Hon. Robert F. Wagner, Mayor of New York, has assumed the official chairmanship of the Greater New York Captive Nations Week observance and will be the principal speaker at the City Hall ceremony which will be held on Monday, July 17, 1961. He had issued the Captive Nations Week Proclamation on Wednesday, July 12.

Mayor Wagner accepted the chairmanship of the Captive Nations Week observance in response to a letter addressed to him by five American organizations concerned with the plight of the captive nations behind the Iron Curtain. These organizations are: Conference of Americans of Central and Eastern European Descent (CACED), the American Conference for the Liberation of the Non-Russian Nations in the USSR, the National Captive Nations Committee (NCNC), the American Friends of the Captive Nations (AFCN) and the Assembly of Captive European Nations (ACEN).

Observance's Program

The New York City observance of Captive Nations Week will begin on Sunday, July 16, 1961 with a solemn high Mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral at 10:00 A.M. at which a special sermon on the plight of the captive nations will be delivered by a high clergyman of the Cathedral's staff. Similar religious services will be held in Protestant churches and Jewish synagogues in the City.

The Mayor's Captive Nations Committee requests that representatives of the captive nations appear in national costumes and in the largest possible numbers.

The principal observance will take place at noon on Monday, July 17, 1961 at City Hall in New York City.

The principal address on the importance of the Captive Nations Week will be delivered by the Hon. Robert F. Wagner, Mayor of New York. He will be introduced by Thomas J. Cuite, Councilman, Borough of Brooklyn and member of the p. 3292).

National Captive Nations Committee in Washington. Stephen J. Jarema, chairman of the American Conference for the Liberation of the Non-Russian Nations in the USSR, and executive director of the Ukrainian Congress Committee of America, will be master of ceremonies.

The United Ukrainian American Organizations of Greater New York, a branch of the Ukrainian Congress Committee of America, has issued a special appeal to all Americans of Ukrainian descent in the Metropolitan area of New York to take a massive part in both the Sunday and Monday observances of Captive Nations Week in the City.

The National Captive Nations Committee under the chairmanship of Dr. Lev Dobriansky, Georgetown professor, labor leaders, church officials, industry executives, newspaper editors, publishers, civic, patriotic and nationality leaders as well as 17 U. S. Senators and 65 Congressmen in the Honorary Committee, is looking forward to the Proclamation of the Captive Nations Week by President Kennedy. President Eisenhower proclaimed the Week twice, in 1959 and 1960, and on the basis of President Kennedy's expressed feelings in the past, it is expected that he will issue such a Presidential Proclamation soon. Speaking on the plight of the captive nations, President Kennedy has stated:

"As a member of that body [Senate] I have continually spoken in behalf of the eventual freedom of the captive peoples. I'll state here what I have been declaring throughout this campaign: We must never—at any summit in any treaty declaration, in our words, or even in our minds—recognize Soviet domination of Eastern Europe. This is the theme of Captive Nations Week, and it must be furthered in future observances. Indeed, throughout the period of every year until complete freedom is attained" (Congressional Record, March 8, 1961, p. 3292).

Over 300 at Colgate Conference Support Kennedy Program

By WALTER DUSHNYCK

HAMILTON, N. Y., July 11 — Over 300 delegates and 43 representatives of foreign embassies, including four Ukrainian American representatives were registered before the opening yesterday of the twelfth annual Foreign Policy Conference at Colgate University here.

The participants responded to an appeal from President Kennedy by signing the petition which urged the U. S. Congress to support the Administration's foreign-aid economic program.

Most of the delegates, 315 in number, signed the petition at the opening session of the conference. In so doing they recommended that Congress empower the President to commit international development funds for up to five years.

President Kennedy sent a telegram to the conference which was read by Everett N. Case, president of Colgate University. In it Mr. Kennedy greeted the delegates as representatives of the enlightened leadership of the world and of the United States, and appealed for their endorsement of his foreign-aid program.

Bulgarian Absent

The only Iron Curtain delegate, Dimitar I. Hadjiez of Bulgaria, who was to attend this year's Colgate conference, withdrew at the last minute without stating his reasons for doing so.

Ukrainian American representatives registered here include Stephen Jarema, executive director of the Ukrainian Congress Committee of America. Walter Dushnyck, editor of UCCA publications; Dr. Lubomyr O. Ortynsky, executive secretary of Prolog Research and Publishing Association of New York; and Martha I. Bohachevsky, also representing Prolog.

Walter D. Prybyla, Jr. of Syracuse, president of the Federation of Ukrainian Student Organizations of America and Mrs. Prybyla attended the opening session as guests and indicated that they would return later on in the week. The conference will last until Friday, July 14.

This morning Dr. Ortynsky, Mr. Jarema and Miss Bohachevsky took part in the European panel, while this writer was a participant at the United Nations panel and discussed the question of the establishment of diplomatic relations with Outer Mongolia by the United States.

Tomorrow's session of the conference is to deal with Eastern Europe, and all the Ukrainian representatives are expected to participate in it.

During informal gatherings between sessions, publications of the UCCA and Prolog were made available to the delegates, who quickly exhausted the selection.

DOWNGRADING ON CHAMPION OF LIBERTY STAMPS HELD "IRRATIONAL"

WASHINGTON, D. C. July 7.—The charge was made today by the National Captive Nations Committee that the Postal Department "appears to be plainly irrational" in downgrading the Champion of Liberty stamp series. In letters sent to members of the Senate and House Post Office committees, the chairman of NCNC, Dr. Lev Dobriansky of Georgetown University, declared that the Department is making a serious error in reducing the significance of "this medium for people-to-people contact." He urged the members to influence the restoration and expansion of the series, which will be a major theme of Captive Nations Week beginning July 16.

Three Champion of Liberty stamps were issued last year. The present Administration has reduced the number to one and in letters to legislators it cast doubt on the series' continuance.

Professor Dobriansky, in stressing the importance of the stamps in the cold war struggle, argues that "there are dozens of freedom fighters honored by the captive peoples of Europe and Asia who deserve our knowledgeable praise." He cited the current case of Ukraine's Shevchenko. He also called upon the legislators to thwart Khrushchev's present propaganda play aimed at influencing the President not to issue a Captive Nations Week Resolution. The incongruous Independence Day message sent by Khrushchev and reports of growing cleavage between Moscow and Peiping are part of this play, Dr. Dobriansky declared.

Award Road Contract for Blue Ridge Parkway

WASHINGTON, D.C., July 6, 1961.—Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall today announced the award of a $888,956 National Park Service contract for construction of the road, bridges and other work along the Linville Falls Spur of Blue Ridge Parkway in Burke County, North Carolina.

The work will be done by Crowder Construction Company, Charlotte, North Carolina, lowest of seven bidders for the job.

The contract calls for grading, base coursing and surfacing the one-and-one-half-mile long Linville Falls Spur, and construction of four bridges. Two of the bridges will be 80-foot-span concrete box-girder structures carrying a 24-foot roadway over Linville River.

Another bridge will be a 350-foot-long prestressed concrete grade separation at North Carolina State Route 183. A fourth bridge will be a concrete slab structure having three 35-foot spans with a 10-foot-wide walkway to serve as a foot-bridge over the river.

National Park Service Director Conrad L. Wirth said that completion of the project will provide easy access to Linville Falls, which currently can be reached only over a roundabout route via existing State roads. The parking area will be at the end of the spur from which point visitors will be able to cross the river over the footbridge to the existing trail system, leading to the Falls and other outstanding viewpoints.

Wirth pointed out that the Linville Falls area and gorge are among the highly scenic areas in North Carolina. The falls and its immediate surroundings, he added, were donated to the United States Government by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and the right-of-way for the Linville Spur to provide access to the areas was donated by the State of North Carolina.

The U. S. Department of the Interior announced that the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D. C., will be kept open to visitors on a 24-hour basis during the months of July and August. The memorial has been open to visitors only from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. each day. This extension of hours was decided upon, according to Department officials, in response to the extraordinary public interest in the Lincoln shrine so far this season.

Donations in Memory of Late D. Halychyn, UNA President

NEW YORK, N.Y. June 30, (Svoboda) — Sums totaling $500.00 have been donated to various Ukrainian welfare causes and schools in memory of the late UNA Supreme President, Dmytro Halychyn. Mrs. Stephanie Halychyn has donated $150.00 to the St. George Ukrainian Catholic School in New York City; $100.00 to Bishop Ambrose Senyshyn's St. Basil Academy in Stamford, Conn.; $100.00 to the Shevchenko Memorial Committee of America for the erection of the Shevchenko statue in Washington (the late Mr. D. Halychyn had already contributed $200.00 for that purpose); $100.00 for the needs of the Apostolic Visitation (Archbishop Ivan Buchko) in Rome, Italy; and 50.00 to the Ukrainian Catholic School in Astoria, L. I., N. Y., conducted by the Basilian Sisters.

IT WAS MORE THAN JUST A GAME

By AL YAREMKO

Everyone knows by now that the Ukrainian Nationals of Philadelphia won their second straight U. S. Soccer Championship, and how the goals were scored in the decisive 5-2 victory over Los Angeles Scots at La Salle College Stadium on June 25th before 6,000 fans. But it would seem to me that those who missed the game would like to get an idea of what went on before the game, during the game and after the game, especially among the fans, and this was not an ordinary game.

Approaching the stadium one immediately had the feeling of a big event. Young boys were shouting "Get your Soccer Programs here," while peanut vendors were set up for business too, just like at a big league ball game. The cars that were parking had plates from many nearby states, yes, even from Canada, and this was a big moment for Ukrainians.

The game was delayed by the temporary refusal of the L. A. Scots to go on the field because they saw only one policeman present. But when five more arrived they felt "safer" for some reason and run hurriedly on the field so that this writer, as the announcer, could not give them individual introductions as was done for the more cooperative Ukrainians who ran on the field as their names were called.

After the national anthem was played, flowers were exchanged by the team captains and the official kick-off by City Councilman Henry P. Carr, who was escorted to the field by club president Lev Yatskevych. Referee Tom Callaghan blew his whistle and the game was on.

Surprise starter was Carl Yakovino, who played the entire game with his hand in a cast. He scored a goal and assisted in two others. It was a disappointment not to see Captain Mike Noha in uniform, due to his conduct in the game at L. A. Alex Ely was still nursing a broken leg while Mike Campo did not report from Canada. Minus these stars the Ukrainians nevertheless went to work and showed the Californians what makes them the undefeated champions.

The entire game was filmed by professional sports photographers and this 16mm film is available for club rentals. It shows how happily the fans cheered after each goal. My wife knocked her glasses off in her excitement while little Tommy dropped his ice cream pop in the melee. Every Ukrainian was proud of this "Tryzub" team as it came through with flying colors. It was announced that this is the 44th straight game over a 20-month period that the Ukrainian Nationals have not been defeated in cup and league games and that this is one of the great teams of all times. A mighty proud cheer came after every such laudatory report.

When the final whistle blew, the fans stormed on the field to congratulate the Ukrainian players and it was with much difficulty that national soccer secretary Mr. James Barriskill managed to present the gleaming 33" high $2,000 silver National Challenge Trophy to acting captain Evhen Krawets and Manager Marion Kozeniowsky.

Over forty cameras were seen clicking away, and then the jubilant players carried the trophy off the field and into the dressing room. That evening the local radio and television studios reported on the big victory for the Ukrainians and next day sizeable reports and pictures appeared in the Philadelphia newspapers, to give the Ukrainian name some very good free publicity. And that is the purpose of having this team — to get good publicity for the Ukrainians.

Jersey City H.N.S. and Parish News

By MICHAEL STEBLECKI

A large delegation from the SS. Peter and Paul Ukrainian Holy Name Society of Jersey City, N. J. attended the St. George's Choir Dance held in New York City recently. The group was headed by the Society President, Thomas Lasuk and included Walter M. Sakula, Joseph Bilas, George Zidiak, and Nicholas Mandra. Members of the H. N. S. still make it a periodic practice to support the affairs of the organized Ukrainian groups on the local or national level, as the occasion demands. This obligatory habit of aiding those whose background is the same as our own, has continued to pay dividends through the years. Also it has served as an example to others, that many mutual benefits can be delivered by all concerned, if this effort is reciprocated and expanded even more frequently in the future.

The Bowling League under the sponsorship of the Jersey City Holy Name Society concluded its season May 12 last. Organized by Mr. Lasuk, 10 teams bowled every Friday evening at the Monticello Recreation Center. The championship title was won by the high-flying "Jets", captained by Robert Madden, the star competitor of the league. Bob Madden bowled the highest single game of 276 and compiled the best season average of 181. The "Untouchables" with the highest team average in league competition were able to finish only in second place. Michael Kawoocza, another member of the "Jets" tallied the highest 3 game series of 636 for the season and was the most improved bowler of the league. Awards to the winners were made at the Bowling Banquet that was held on May 27 at the Ukrainian Community Center in Jersey City.

Induction of new members into the Society was held on Sunday, June 4th, following Corporate Holy Communion received by the members, Rev. Anthony Borsa, Spiritual Moderator, officiated at the ceremony that followed the 8:00 A.M. Mass. New members sworn in were as follows: Michael Kufka, Stephen B. Petryshyn, William Syby, Thomas Dzubina, William A. Banach and Nicholas Bodnaruk. Each inductee was presented with a Holy Name lapel button and a copy of the Manual by the Pastor.

On Sunday afternoon, June 4th, parochial school boys from SS. Peter and Paul Ukrainian Catholic Parish competed for the first time in the 50th Annual Championship Track Meet sponsored by the Hudson County Federation of Holy Name Societies at Pershing Field in Jersey City, N. J. The boys performed well, even though they never got past the eliminations held to determine the finalists for the short distance races. According to Myron Pello, coach and trainer of the team, the boys showed a potential that could be developed for the future. Members of the parochial school team that took part in this field meet were: Joe Hadawitz, Mike Kufka, Walt Charzenko, Bill Tizio, Gerry Petrowski, Marc Umenny and Tom Kusen.

The first Parish Picnic was held at Patrylow's Grove Park, East Kellingsworth, N. J. under the auspices of the Blessed Virgin Mary Sisterhood (Downtown Branch) on Sunday, June 11th last. It was well attended and proceeds of $703 were realized for the New School Building Fund campaign being conducted by the SS. Peter and Paul Ukrainian Catholic Church of Jersey City, N. J. Sisterhood members are grateful to those parishioners who assisted at the picnic with all details and especially wish to thank the many good people that attended, for their cooperative interest.

СВОБОДА EDITORIALS

From page two

PRESIDENT KENNEDY'S REMINDER

Commenting on the telegram sent by Premier Khrushchev to President Kennedy on the occasion of the American Independence Day, and President Kennedy's reply to it, the editorial underscored the fact that the American President reminded the Soviets of the ideas behind the Declaration of Independence which are still alive today and which are as important to the present-day generation as they were to the first great leaders of this nation. "President Kennedy's reply, although written in a very courteous tone, was definite and unconditional: not coexistence, not concessions, but first of all freedom for the individual, and freedom for the nations."

Maria Uhryn (third left) arrived June 4, 1961 at New York International Airport from her native Ukraine and is met by daughter (left) Mrs. Stephanie Zurowki of Jersey City, and son, John, Brooklyn, N.Y., whom she hasn't seen for twenty years. Reunion took place shortly after Mrs. Uhryn arrived aboard a KLM Royal Dutch Airlines Jet. Looking on are John's wife (extreme right) and grandchildren. Mrs. Uhryn will live with her son John in Brooklyn. The immigration and transportation formalities were handled by Mrs. Vera K. Shumeyko of the Kowbanuk Agency in New York City.

The Really Like Their Teacher

By MICHAEL FEDYSHYN

In Colonia, N. J., a section of the Woodbridge township School, the fifth grade class of Mrs. Ann Berko Dougherty do not adhere to the Adage of No More School No More Books.

Their saying is: We want Pencils — We want Books — We like Mrs. Dougherty's looks!

In spite of the fact that Mrs. Dougherty is a firm believer in homework and weekly tests, the youngsters still like school and Mrs. Dougherty. As proof they have written her a letter which said that they would stand in line this summer if she were to teach...

And Mrs. Dougherty was thrilled. No wonder; a teacher could not receive a greater compliment.

Ann Berko Dougherty was born in Perth Amboy, N. J. She is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Berko and the late Basil Berko. Ann was married to Frank Dougherty May 21st, 1938. They are the parents of two children Joan, a June graduate of St. Basil's Academy in Fox Chase, Pa. and Victor, a graduate of St. Basil's College in Stamford, Conn. Victor, while at St. Basil's, was editor of the school paper. Both were honor students.

Mrs. Dougherty's childhood ambition to become a school teacher was sidetracked when her friends who were going into nursing inspired her to join them. She graduated from the Perth Amboy General Hospital School of Nursing in 1935 and worked in hospitals in Perth Amboy, Weehawken, Brooklyn and Rahway.

In 1952 Mrs. Dougherty enrolled at Seton Hall University. A year before she graduated, she started teaching on an emergency certificate in the Woodbridge Township School System. She continued at Seton Hall attending evening and summer classes, and graduated in 1956 with a B. S. degree.

Combining tried and true teaching methods with a theory of her own; asking, finding out exploring and trying instead of just reading about things, Mrs. Dougherty has managed to make education a goal and school work a challenge for her pupils.

Parents of pupils in Mrs. Dougherty's class have taken her aside at Parent-Teacher conferences to inform her that in supervising their children's homework, they find themselves learning new things also.

The fifth grade class in the Colonia school had undertaken various projects, such as helping the unfortunate children stricken with Cerebral Palsy and donating monies from classroom projects to different charities.

Mrs. Dougherty and her children Joan and Victor are members of the Ukrainian Catholic Church of the Assumption, Perth Amboy, N. J. of which Msgr. Jaroslaw Gabro is pastor.

Signing the letter to their teacher, Mrs. Dougherty (right), are left to right: Carol Benesta, Barbara Garo and Barbara Stulz.

Kudrick — Evening News

ФОНД НАГЛОЇ ПОТРЕБИ

СПИСОК ч. 21 (1961 р.)

A long list of names and amounts, organized in columns. It appears to be a record of donations or contributions for a fund. Names include various surnames and first names, and amounts are listed in dollars and cents.

Сума повернених чеків $ 47.67
Разом проголошено 6,221.51
РАЗОМ: $ 7,169.18

БАТЬКИ! Ключем до майбутньої дитини є в першу чергу набуття високої і професійної освіти. Забезпечте її Вашій дитині вже на самій початковій її школі, придбавши для неї студійну поліцію УНСОЮ!

Their Wives Play Ball Too

DERRY, Pa. — When the local Ukrainian baseball team becomes tired on the field, the players let their wives finish the game.

Recently, the Derry Ukes, as the team is known, were playing a game with the Old-Timers. The press report on the game stated that "it was the younger Ukes who seemed to tire during the game and had to be replaced by their wives in the late innings." The final score was 8:7 for the Old-Timers.

The Derry Ukes are in the first division of the Derry Recreation League. The team's manager is John Maloy, Jr., while Anthony Burik handles the team's business angle.