PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S STATE OF THE UNION ADDRESS

WASHINGTON, D.C. — President Johnson delivered his first State of the Union address since he assumed the highest office of the land, the presidency. The address, delivered to the joint session of Congress on Wednesday, January 8, took only 40 minutes to present.

President L. B. Johnson

In the address President Johnson made several important points which he expected this session of congress to act upon. He said that the last session was the longest in peacetime history and he asked Congress to make this session "the best in the Nation's history."

The most surprising point in President Johnson's speech was the announcement that he intended to cut next year's federal budget down to $97.9 billion. He said that he intended to achieve this by reduction in federal employment, a feat accomplished only once before in the last 10 years, cut in civilian personnel in the Department of Defense, without hampering the country's full strength.

Declares War on Discrimination

The President also called for a wide-ranging program to end poverty and discrimination at home. He said that "many Americans live on the outskirts of hope, some because of their poverty and some because of their color, and all too many because of both."

"Rally Against Communism" In Binghamton, N. Y.

Binghamton, N. Y. — The Binghamton Sunday Press and the Sun-Bulletin reported that the local Ukrainian community commemorated the 30th anniversary of famine in Ukraine, on Sunday, December 22, 1963.

More than 100 persons attended the rally sponsored by the Binghamton chapter of the Organization for the Defense of Four Freedoms for Ukraine.

Aliens Reminded to Register

JERSEY CITY, N.J.—Aliens living in the United States are required by law to file a notice of their address once each year during the month of January. Forms to make their yearly reports are available at every Post Office as well as all County Naturalization Offices and the Immigration and Naturalization District Offices.

On discrimination, the President said that all persons should have equal access to public facilities, should be equally eligible for federal benefits that are financed by the public, should have equal opportunity to vote for public officials and send their children to good public schools.

"Today," said the President, "Americans of all races stand side by side in Berlin and in Vietnam. They died side by side in Korea. Surely," the President went on, "they can work and eat and travel side by side in their own country."

World Without War

Mr. Johnson stressed that our ultimate goal is a world without war. But he said that we must maintain our defenses. The President said that "we must be strong enough to win any war and we must be wise enough to prevent one."

He said that "many Americans live on the outskirts of hope, some because of their poverty and some because of their color, and all too many because of both."

Streets Cleaned For Visits By Westerners

Father Sabol said that special military details, in preparation for visits by French and English officials, cleaned the streets of Kiev and Kharkiv of "hundreds and hundreds" of bodies of people who died of hunger.

Dominick F. Rinaldi, New Jersey District Director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, stated that a rather unusual result of the program each year is the tremendous rise in the number of applications submitted by persons who want to become citizens. Mr. Rinaldi estimated that the number of applications for naturalization received during January, February and March is almost thirty percent higher than normal. Non-citizens who are interested in applying for citizenship should inquire at the Immigration and Naturalization Service office in their respective cities.

POPE PAUL VI ENDS PILGRIMAGE TO HOLY LAND, TERMS MEETING WITH ATHENAGORAS FIRST STEP TO CHRISTIAN UNITY

Rome, Italy.—Pope Paul VI ended an unprecedented three-day pilgrimage to the Holy Land and returned to Rome last Tuesday, January 7, where he was cheered by hundreds of thousands on his arrival at the Ciampino Airport near here.

Pope Paul VI and Patriarch Athenagoras I unite in prayer in the Holy Land.

The 66-year old Pontiff was officially welcomed at the airport by Italian President Antonio Segni and other government leaders. Many thousands lined the 15-mile route from the airport to the Vatican to greet the Pope on his return.

Begins Day Early

The Pontiff began his journey on Saturday with a light breakfast and left the Vatican at 7:45 A.M. in an eight car motorcade escorted by Italian policemen on motorcycles.

The bells of Rome's nearly 500 churches pealed for 10 minutes as the Papal plane took off from the airport to begin the historic trip. The Pontiff flew directly to Amman, Jordan, where he began his pilgrimage.

Upon his arrival in the Holy Land he was greeted by overjoyed crowds near the Damascus Gate to Jerusalem. The policeman assigned to guard him virtually carried the Pontiff through the throngs to the walled city, where he followed the traditional path that Jesus followed bearing the cross.

Kiss Of Peace

When the two Church leaders met they exchanged a "kiss of peace." The kiss came about as the Patriarch entered the reception room at the Roman Catholic Apostolic delegation on the Mount of Olives where Pope Paul was staying.

Spends Night on Mount of Olives

After spending the night at the quarters of the Apostolic delegation on Mount of Olives, Pope Paul left early Sunday morning on a visit to Nazareth, where Jesus spent his boyhood.

The Pope and Patriarch met for 29 minutes in an historic encounter. The last time a Pope met an Orthodox Patriarch was in 1439, when Pope Eugene IV and Patriarch Joseph II met at the Council of Florence.

Encyclical Expected

The Pontiff was so inspired by his pilgrimage to the Holy Land, that he was reported preparing a special major encyclical on the changing role of the Catholic Church in the modern world.

Both the Pope and Athenagoras expressed their eagerness "to start formation of commissions as soon as possible. Both are committed to the cause of unity, so that this meeting is not a romantic, isolated event."

It was reported that the Holy Father was expected to stress in his first papal letter the twin aims of Christian unity and world peace, and to indicate that he considers that the march toward these goals has just begun.

In word and in deed the leader of the Catholic Church joined the Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, Athenagoras I, the most eminent representative of the Eastern Orthodox Church, on top of the Mount of Olives in the Lord's Prayer. The Pope prayed in Latin, the Patriarch in Greek.

The scene was without precedent in the last 500 years. Some of those present wept. Reviewing the meeting of the two Church leaders, Maximos IV, Catholic Patriarch of Jerusalem, said that this simple meeting by itself has overcome half of the difficulties that divide these two great Christian groups.

The Orthodox point of view on the meeting was given by Archbishop Iakovos, head of the Greek Orthodox Church in North and South America. He said that "this summit conference will continue through the appointment of a special theological commission."

He went on to say that it is only "a matter of time between now and the third session of the Ecumenical Council that many theological questions related to worship and discipline will be discussed."

Both the Pope and Athenagoras expressed their eagerness "to start formation of commissions as soon as possible. Both are committed to the cause of unity, so that this meeting is not a romantic, isolated event."

TUSM High School Branch Holds Annual Meeting

Philadelphia, Pa. — The annual meeting of the High School Branch of the Ukrainian Students Organization of Philadelphia was held on Dec. 13, 1963 at the Home of the Ukrainian American Youth Association in Philadelphia.

Bohdan Kulcheyky, President of the TUSM Executive Board and Zirkha Kolinko, member, were present at the meeting. The president of the High School Branch of TUSM, Bohdan Voloshchuk, welcomed the guests and members in his brief opening address. The members elected the Presidium of the meeting with Zenon Wontorsky as head and Zirkha Kolinko as secretary.

Mrs. Christine Kulcheyky was invited to be the academic adviser to the branch.

NEW YORK — The American Committee for Liberation announced on January 10, 1964 that it is changing its name officially to Radio Liberty Committee because of the impact made by its 24-hour-a-day "Radio Liberty" broadcasts into the Soviet Union.

Three Ukrainians Named to Posts In Youngstown

Youngstown, Ohio — The newly elected mayor of Youngstown, Anthony B. Flask completed the formation of his city cabinet by appointing three Ukrainians to aid him in carrying out his newly acquired duties.

John Terlesky

Mayor-elect Flask named John Terlesky, who has been chief of detectives, chief of police, Michael Yurchison, assistant law director and Dr. Vitaly Holonko, city physician.

Terlesky, 49, a Youngstown native has served in the police department for 22 years. Since October 7, 1962, he has been chief of detectives and is regarded as one of the men responsible for improvement in the city's crime record.

Chief Terlesky is a member of Ukrainian Holy Trinity Catholic Church, Fraternal Order of Police, Ukrainian Citizens' Club and Ukrainian National Association Branch 230. Attorney Michael Yurchison, 45, is widely known in the Youngstown area, a member of many civic organizations. He is presently the vice-president of Ukrainian National Association's Branch 230 and president of Youngstown UCCA Branch. He has held the above mentioned posts for four years.

Did Not Seek Job

Mayor-elect Flask said that he chose Terlesky after a long study of the applicant. He said that the job "reached out for the man" and had not been particularly sought by him.

Flask also said that he consulted with Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy before President Kennedy's assassination and with others in what he termed a special effort to provide the city with a well qualified police chief.

DECISION ON SHEVCHENKO STATUE RE-AFFIRMED BY PLANNING COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The National Capital Planning Commission has decided to accept a report by its Federal Planning and Projects Committee on Thursday, January 9, 1964 which stated that there was no basis for rescinding its previous decision approving the site for the Shevchenko statue in Washington, D.C.

The report was submitted on Wednesday, January 8, 1964 by the Federal Planning and Projects Committee to the National Capital Planning Commission, which stated that after reviewing the motion by Walter C. Loucheim, Jr. to rescind the approval for the location and the design of the monument, it found that there was no reason to do so.

Mr. Loucheim, who had originally objected to the Commission's approval of the Shevchenko monument site and design, based his renewed opposition on the "arguments" allegedly brought out by The Washington Post.

Following the groundbreaking ceremonies for the Shevchenko statue on September 21, 1963 in the nation's capital, this newspaper had embarked on a campaign calling for the repeal of the Congressional Act authorizing the erection of the monument.

Since Loucheim is a member of the National Capital Planning Commission, his request had to be taken up by the body as a matter of procedural rules.

Following the same procedures, the National Capital Planning Commission referred the matter to the Federal Planning and Projects Committee, which at its meeting on January 8, 1964 found no validity in Mr. Loucheim objections. This report of the committee was favorably accepted by the National Capital Planning Commission.

UNA District Committee of Perth Amboy Holds Annual Meeting

PERT AMBOY, N. J. — Michael Fedynshyn, the youthful and energetic secretary of Branch 155 and one of the leading UNA organizers, was elected chairman of the Perth Amboy UNA District Committee at its annual meeting held Sunday, December 29, 1963, at the local Ukrainian National Home.

The meeting was chaired by C. Nakonechny, past chairman of the Committee who was accorded special acknowledgment for his continued and dedicated service to the UNA and the Ukrainian community at large; acting as secretary was V. Yaniv of Carteret, N. J. Following the reports of the outgoing officers and the discussion on the business at hand, the chairman introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Yaroslav Padoch, UNA Supreme Secretary.

The speaker reviewed the status and the accomplishments of the Ukrainian National Association during the past year and outlined plans for 1964. — a year of special significance for the UNA as it will mark the 70th anniversary since its establishment.

In reporting on the progress of the Perth Amboy district, the Supreme Secretary noted that thanks to the efforts of several hard-working branch secretaries and members the relatively small district is currently eighth among the 33 UNA districts, not far behind such large centers as Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Toronto and others. The speaker praised particularly the organizational work of Michael Fedynshyn of Perth Amboy, J. Jarema of Plainfield, I. Hnid of Manville, Rev. P. Pelekh of Carteret, P. Hrabovych of New Brunswick, and others. M. Fedynshyn alone organized 50 new members in 1963.

Along with an appropriate observance on the occasion of the 70th anniversary of the UNA, which coincides to the day with George Washington's Day, the Supreme Secretary stressed that a whole range of new assignments awaits the district as well as the entire association in the new year if the UNA is to grow and develop as befits the largest and oldest Ukrainian organization in the free world.

In conjunction with the organizational campaign, for which the goal has been set at 7,000 new members, the Perth Amboy district will have to organize at least 250 members. In order to attain this goal, Dr. Padoch indicated that a revitalization of some branches would be required, and that five small branches would have to be inactivated or merged with the larger and more active ones. Specifically, he mentioned branches 209 of Carteret, 294 of Rahway, 306 of Linden, 312 of South Plainfield, and 315 of Metuchen. The newly elected committee not only endorsed this proposal but resolved to implement it within the next three months.

Dr. Padoch also informed the meeting of the publication of Ukraine: A Concise Encyclopedia by the University of Toronto Press for the UNA, an achievement that is indicative not only of UNA's concern with the material well-being of all Ukrainians but also with their cultural, social and educational progress and development.

Along with M. Fedynshyn other officers elected to the District Committees were as follows: P. Hrabovych and C. Nakonechny, vice-chairmen, V. Yaniv, secretary, G. Babyn, treasurer, and M. Stepas, R. Stenko, J. Jarema and I. Babyn, members.

UNA Branch 316 in Rochester Holds Annual Meeting

Rochester, N. Y.—John Svelas, running unopposed, was unanimously re-elected to a second term as president of the Ukrainian Civil Center, Branch 316 of the Ukrainian National Association at the annual meeting held on Saturday, December 21, 1963. Re-elected along with Svelas were Walter Harylak, recording secretary, and William Kuchmy, treasurer.

An interesting part of the meeting was the election for financial secretary between John Kravets and Liubomyr Bilyk. When the votes were counted both men had 34 votes each. A second ballot was then taken with Bilyk being elected by a 38-30 vote.

board of directors were Nicholas Kuchmy and Steven Andrews. Newly elected members are John Kucey, John Oleksyn and John Sanagursky. Re-elected to the auditing committee were William Evanciv, Walter Guriansky and John Novak.

Theodore Oleksyn was re-elected assistant recording secretary while John Chuhay and Peter Dziuba were elected assistant financial secretary and assistant treasurer, respectively.

Members of the committee in charge of visiting the ill are: Natalie Dorofey, Ann Tatyga and Alex Atamanchuk. The new officers held their first meeting on December 28, and re-appointed Walter Svelas manager of the Ukrainian Civil Center and James Melnyk assistant manager.

Readers React to Distortions Of Facts on Shevchenko Monument

The Washington Post Washington, D. C. Gentlemen:

About two weeks ago I had occasion to write you as President of Branch 19 of the Ukrainian National Association...

Your most recent article on this subject, "Monument to Ignorance" in the issue of November 1, 1963, prompts me to make a few remarks again...

Aside from the fact that the very title of your last article is insulting to the 1 1/2 million of Americans of Ukrainian descent and to those American leaders in and out of Congress who have been espousing the cause of freedom for Ukraine...

It is significant that the author of the article mentioned above was able to recognize the poet's universality by making his words fit conditions in England in his time...

Thus we see that the author working for Charles Dickens in 1877 correctly appraised the position of Shevchenko as champion of liberty...

Your entire line of making Shevchenko appear to be the idol of the Soviet Communist Party also seems to rest on false assumptions...

Very truly yours, Roman Olesnicki

Onyshkevych Ends Trip to Europe

New York — Zenowij Onyshkevych, a young and rising Ukrainian painter from New York, has just returned from a seven month working-vacation trip to Europe...

Mr. Onyshkevych has studied at the Art Students League of New York and at Pratt Institute where he was awarded a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree...

In 1959, Mr. Onyshkevych had his first "one-man show" (an exhibition of oil and water color paintings as well as drawings) which was considered a big success...

His second, and most recent exhibition, took place in Washington D. C. last February where he again attracted attention of the press...

The Washington Evening Star critic said that the painter "... works directly with the image of shore, sky and sea..." and that "he is out to get the seaside scene and gets it almost every time..."

Leslie Judd Ahlander of The Washington Post said that the artist is a "... traditional and classic watercolorist who makes good use of wash to convey a sense of space and air..."

Mixed Reaction to Nats Visit in Bermuda

Everyone knows by now that the Ukrainian Nationals made a trip, over the Christmas Holidays, to Bermuda on the invitation of the Bermuda Football Association...

If winning every game (and they did) is a mark of complete success, then it can be said that the Ukrainian Nationals returned home with success...

To begin with, the Ukrainian Nationals went to Bermuda highly recommended. The local press gave the Nats much space on their sports pages describing their abilities as a team and even pointing out some of the stars of the team...

The champs showed their form in the first match of the tour when they beat the Bermuda under 23's 8-2, and again received great praise from the local press and soccer fans.

Then it happened. After winning the second match, 3-1, the Philadelphia eleven met the Bermuda over 23's selection. With the score 3-1 in their favor, the referee awarded a penalty against the Nats a few minutes before the end of the game...

The teams were tied, 2-2, at the end of the first half. After the start of the second half USC scored two goals to go ahead 4-2 but the Italian eleven managed to tie the game and force an overtime period...

The highly partisan and unruly spectators felt that the referee made some unfair decision and decided to take matters into their own hands.

The melee started near the Ukrainian goal seconds after Giuliana scored the winning marker. No amount of pleading on the part of the officials could stop the rioting and the referee ended the match.

According to unofficial sources the game will not be replayed and Giuliana can look forward to meeting their next opponent in cup play.

By the end of the tour the Nats won all four matches. They did not play the fifth because of bad weather but instead where invited to a party in their honor.

A question comes up in the mind of this reporter whether winning a game (an exhibition game at that) is more important than proper behavior on the field of sport? Is it worth
