USC Wins in a Thriller

NEW YORK, N. Y. — New York Ukrainians, defending champions of the United States, won the first game of a two-game total goal series in the Eastern finals of the National Challenge Cup competition...

Although the steady rain made the field very heavy, it was still the best played match this season. And probably the best ever played between these two clubs.

Good Game
The picture changed somewhat at the beginning of the second stanza, as the much slower but technically superior Philadelphia side began to press the play.

How Lucky Can You Get??
The soccer team from Chelmsford prison in England played the black Notley side in the mid-Essex Cup final on Monday night with special permission from Home Secretary Roy Jenkins.

Before the game, the prison team captain announced that he would field his strongest possible side, including a key forward they lost recently because he had served his term.
