Ambridge Bowlers Aim For First in UNA Tourney

MANY OTHERS BID FOR CASH PRIZES, TROPHIES

AMBRIDGE, Pa.—"At the close of the first national tournament in Aliquippa last year we made plans to have good representation at the next tourney," writes Andrew Jula, Supreme Advisor of the Ukrainian National Association from Ambridge, Pa.

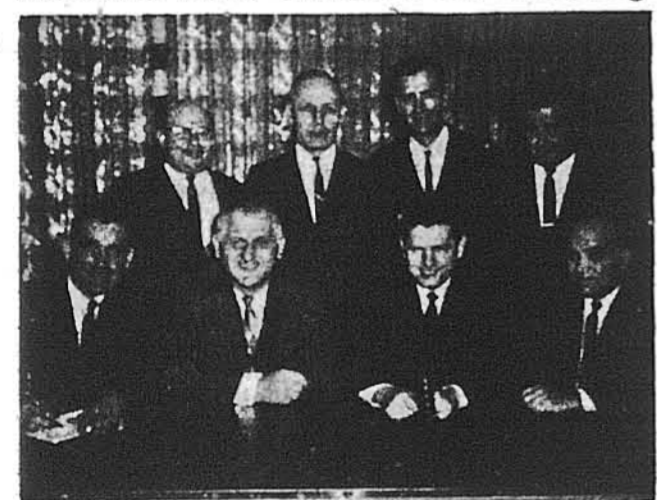

The Ambridge bowlers intend to make good on their word. They set to work early to raise enough money for the trip to Rochester, N.Y., where this year's tournament will be held Saturday, April 15.

Mr. Jula, who is also financial secretary of UNA St. Basil's Branch 161 in Ambridge, says that the keggers have so far been able to raise $600, enough to pay transportation, entry fee and the banquet ticket for each individual member of the team. The group plans to travel by bus. Derry, Pa., another hotbed of Ukrainian bowling, also plans to send a busload of bowlers to Rochester. Aliquippa will send two men's and one women's team, according to Mr. Jula. They will travel by cars.

Indications are that other centers in Western Pennsylvania and Ohio are equally determined to be well represented at the national tournament, as are UNA Branches in Chicago, Detroit, Toronto, New York and New Jersey.

The Tournament Committee, headed former Supreme Advisor, William Hussar, reports that early registration indicates a large turnout, surpassing last year's total of 30 men's and women's teams. The Committee will stage the tourney at North Park Bowling Lanes, conveniently located on East Ridge Road and Hudson Avenue in Rochester. There are 56 lanes available.

UNA St. Basil's Branch 161 Installs New Officers at Meeting

AMBRIDGE, Pa. — Peter Melnyk heads a slate of newly installed officers of UNA St. Basil Branch 161 in Ambridge, Pa., one of the most active and most enterprising units in the "Soyuz" structure.

Mr. Melnyk, elected president of the Branch, was installed along with the following officers at the Branch's regular monthly meeting held here Saturday, January 21: Joseph Nadzak, vice-president, Andrew Jula, financial secretary, Paul Ronosky, Jr., recording secretary, Stanley Prokopovich, treasurer, John S. Antushak, John Sradomski and Andrew Kuzma, trustees.

Heading the board of auditors is John Tyro, Jr., with Michael Hladio and John Melnyk serving as members. The steward of the club is Richard A. Jula.

In reviewing the Branch's progress and setting plans for the year, the members decided on the following contributions: $200 to the Ukrain-

The tournament, governed by ABC and WIBC rules, is open to male and female bowlers who must be of Ukrainian descent or married to a Ukrainian and must be members of the UNA. The entry fee has been set at $25 per team.

More than $1,000 in cash prizes as well as individual team trophies will be awarded to winners in various categories. Prizes of $500 and $300 will go to first and second place winners in men's division, and $200 and $100 cash awards will be given to first and second place teams in the women's division.

Entry blanks have already been mailed out to all UNA Branches in the United States and Canada. They must be returned to the secretaries of the Bowling Committee in Rochester by April 1. Men's team entries should be sent to Mr. John Sorokti, 3810 St. Paul Blvd., Rochester, N.Y. 14617. Women's teams register with Miss Mary Heiden, 103 Meadowood Road, Rochester, N.Y., 14616.

Winners will receive prizes and trophies at the Saturday (April 15) night banquet at the Ukrainian American Club. A dance will follow the banquet.

LIBRARIAN PROMOTED

BOULDER, Colo.—Eugene E. Petriwsky, head of the catalog department at the University of Colorado Library, has been promoted to assistant director of technical services.

Mr. Petriwsky will be in charge of supervising and coordinating five departments: order, bibliography, serials, bibliographic search and catalog maintenance and preservation.

UNA Offers Scholarships; Applications Deadline March 31

JERSEY CITY, N.J.—Applications for the annual scholarships offered by the Ukrainian National Association are being accepted now and must be submitted no later than March 31st.

The scholarships, in the amount of $1,000, $600 and $400 each, are awarded annually to three outstanding students of Ukrainian descent who are in need of financial assistance.

The UNA Scholarship Committee, established in 1964 by a special resolution of the 1962 Convention, will review all applications submitted by the end of March and announce the winners in May of this year. The scholarship awards are made for the academic year 1967-68.

Last year's winners included Eugene Shtendera, of Edmonton, Alta., Jaroslav Czomko, of Syracuse, N.Y., and George Kulczycky, of Cleveland, O. An additional stipend of $200 was awarded to Oleh Z. Lysiak, of Philadelphia, Pa.

In considering the applications, the Committee adheres to three basic criteria — scholastic ability, material needs and participation in Ukrainian community affairs. Candidates must be mem-

Independence Day Observed at Akron University

AKRON, O.—The 49th anniversary of Ukraine's independence proclamation was observed solemnly here on Saturday, January 21, with a concert sponsored jointly by the University of Akron Institute for Civic Education, the University Slavic Club and the local branch of the Ukrainian Congress Committee of America.

Highlighting the concert was the appearance of the "Dniro" Chorus from Cleveland, O., under the baton of E. Sadowsky.

The anniversary celebration was preceded by the signing of special proclamation at city hall, designating January 22nd as Ukrainian Independence Day. The document was signed by the Hon. John S. Ballard, Mayor of Akron, in the presence of representatives of the local Ukrainian community, led by prof. Theodore Mackiw, president of the UCCA branch.

Prof. H. B. Knepper, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, then reviewed some of the highlights of Ukrainian history, citing the year 1917 when the U.S. Congress, under the leadership of the late President Woodrow Wilson, approved a resolution officially designating the Ukrainian Day in America.

Dean Knepper also stressed the important role of Ukrainian cultural heritage in enriching the life and culture of the American people. Prof. Mackiw expressed gratitude for the American recognition of the Ukrainian struggle for freedom and respect for the aspirations of the Ukrainian people. Mr. G. Zerebniak read the Mayor's proclamation and introduced Oleh Kaczala, an Akron University pre-medical senior, who spoke briefly on the significance of the anniversary observance.

The remaining portion of the concert was filled out by the "Dniro" Chorus which rendered several Ukrainian compositions to the delight of the large audience. The male and female groups sang separately before joining for a combined performance of three songs. Piano accompaniment was provided by Mrs. Martha Sawczak Kraus.

A violin solo of "The Ukrainian Dream" by M. Bezkorovayny, and "Elegy" opus 41 by M. Lysenko, was rendered by M. Shayan, also accompanied by Mrs. Kraus.

After the concert, a reception was held in the Ukrainian Catholic parish of the Holy Ghost.

UNA EXECUTIVE, CULTURAL COMMITTEES MEET IN 2-DAY SESSION

Plans Set for Celebrations of Svoboda, UNA Anniversaries

JERSEY CITY, N.J. — A series of elaborate plans were set in motion last week in preparation of the 75th anniversaries of the Ukrainian daily Svoboda and of the Ukrainian National Association, the world's largest and oldest Ukrainian fraternal benefit society with over 88,000 members.

Svoboda, UNA's Ukrainian language organ, will be marking the 75th year of continuous publication in 1968. UNA's anniversary, which coincides with George Washington's birthday, a national holiday, will be marked on February 22, 1969.

Stage Opera

One of the proposals, advanced by the UNA Cultural Committee at its last meeting here Tuesday, February 14, calls for a premiere performance of a yet unnamed Ukrainian opera in New York City. The choice of the opera will be left up to a special committee, including an artistic advisor, which will study the possibility of staging one or more original operas in New York, Toronto and Chicago. It is felt that the production of an original opera on the occasion of UNA's "diamond" anniversary would be of lasting value to the Ukrainian community on the North American continent.

Preference is given to students pursuing studies in the following disciplines: Slavic studies, with specialization in Ukrainian subjects, political science, law, history and journalism.

Special observances, including concerts, banquets, symposiums, are planned for all centers of UNA activity in the United States and Canada. The fact the February 22nd in 1969 falls on a Saturday offers an opportunity to hold the fetes simultaneously and lavishly across the United States and Canada.

Svoboda's jubilee anniversary next year will be marked in New York with a festive banquet with the participation of representatives of

UNA Sends Birthday Greetings To Cardinal Slipyj

JERSEY CITY, N.J.—The Supreme Executive Committee of the Ukrainian National Association, meeting here Wednesday, February 15, sent a message of greetings to Archbishop-Major Josyf Cardinal Slipyj on the occasion of the Ukrainian prelate's 75th birthday and 50th anniversary of ordination. The telegram said:

YOUR GRACE:
In behalf of the Ukrainian National Association please accept our heartfelt felicitations on the occasion of Your Grace's 75th birthday and fifty years of priesthood.

Newark Sith to Honor Athletes, Members at Jubilee Banquet

NEWARK, N.J. — Several outstanding athletes and a number of active members who have served the club since its inception in 1956 will be honored at a banquet here today marking the 10th jubilee anniversary of the "Chornomorska Sith" Athletic Association.

More than 200 members and guests are expected to take part in the fete scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. today at Newark's fashionable Essex House Hotel.

Among distinguished guests who have confirmed their attendance at the banquet will be the Hon. Hugh J. Addonizio, Mayor of Newark, Councilman Frank Addonizio, UNA Supreme President Joseph Lesawyer, Vice-President Mary Dushnyk, Vice-President and Svoboda Sports editor Walter Sochan, local UCCA president, Dr. Volodymyr Huk, and numerous sports leaders of national and state prominence.

The "Chornomorska Sith" sports club, organized under the wings of its older parent association, has grown over the years in both membership and prominence on the field of play. Some of the club's athletes have gained national and international recognition by being selected to representative teams and by winning championships in their chosen fields of sport.

These include Zenon Snyly, three-time Olympian and World Cupper who captained the U.S. Soccer Team, Walter Czynowych, another World Cupper, Myron Worobec, recent Olympic Team selectee, Myron Bakun, a college All-American in soccer, as well as such nationally prominent figures as Dr. Orest Popovych, highly ranked chess master, and Dr. Volodymyr Huk, all-Ukrainian senior men's champion in tennis.

Sith is known to have a strong following in the Greater Newark area, including Ukrainians and non-Ukrainians alike. A number of representatives of the latter group will be on hand today to convey greetings on the occasion of the club's 10th anniversary.

Executive Committee Reviews Progress, Maps Plans

JERSEY CITY, N.J. — Summary reports on the progress of the Ukrainian National Association in 1966 and plans for the future years leading up to the Association's 75th anniversary in 1969 were discussed in detail by members of the Supreme Executive Committee at a day-long session here Wednesday, February 15.

Approve Recommendations

The Committee approved a series of recommendations submitted by the UNA Cultural Committee relating to the observances of the Svoboda and UNA anniversaries, as well as publishing plans for 1968 and 1969.

Taking part in the meeting were the following: Joseph Lesawyer, Supreme President, who chaired the meeting, Vice-Presidents Stephen Kuropas, Mrs. Mary Dushnyk, Bohdan Zorych and Walter Sochan, Dr. Jaroslav Padoch, Supreme Secretary, John Kolski, Supreme Treasurer, and Anthony Dragan, Svoboda Editor-in-Chief.

Mr. Kokolski, whose report was first on the meeting's agenda, noted a slight decrease in mortgage loans applications since the Committee's last meeting in December. A total of $450,802.01 has been granted in mortgage loans in that period of time, while $402,626.19 has been invested in bonds. A profit of $300,640.55 has been recorded from bonds which have matured, and that money has been reinvested in mortgage loans.

Dr. Padoch, citing exact statistical data on last year's membership gains, stated that a total of 4,994 new members had been organized in 1966.

Top Organizers

The Supreme Secretary presented a list of top individual, branch and district organizers, which showed that the UNA Branch in Etobicoke, Ont., emerged as the top unit with 100 new members. Toronto has for the first time moved to first place among districts, with 704 new members, followed by Philadelphia (475) and New York (448). Dmytro Popadynech, Supreme Advisor from Montreal, Que., was first among branch organizers with 73 new members, followed by Charles Sachko (66) and Mrs. Anna Burij (58).

Supreme Advisor Wasyl Didiuk was first among permanent regional organizers with a total of 303 new members.

Dr. Dobriansky, L. Shankovsky to Speak at Shevchenko Festival

CLEVELAND, O. (zrw). — Dr. Lev E. Dobriansky, president of the Ukrainian Congress Committee of America and chairman of the National Captive Nations Committee, will be the guest speaker at the annual Shevchenko Festival here scheduled to take place Sunday, March 12.

Prof. Lev Shankovsky, a distinguished Ukrainian historian and journalist, will also appear on the same program, which is being sponsored here traditionally by the Taras Shevchenko Ukrainian Chorus and the "Kobzar" Theatrical Art Association.

The Festival, to be held at the Parma Senior High School Auditorium, is expected to attract a sell-out crowd.

The appearance of two young performers from New York City will add to the variety of the program. Both artists will be making their debuts in Ohio.

Miss Christine Karpevych, soprano, and Lubomyr Hornytsky, pianist, will appear as soloists on the program which features the Shevchenko chorus and the "Kobzar" group. The latter, under the direction of Volodymyr Honcharenko, will stage excerpts from "The Slave," a drama based on Shevchenko's poem of the same name. The drama relates to events in Ukraine following the Russian takeover in 1775. The chorus will also take part in the theatrical group's production.

The proceeds from the Shevchenko Festival are designated for the Ukrainian Studies Chair Fund, a project leading toward the establishment of a Ukrainian Studies Department at one of the major universities in America. The project is nearing its final stages, with the Department expected to begin functioning in 1968.

Mr. Sochan covered in detail the movement of membership and the trends in organizational work, stating that as of the end of 1966 the UNA had a membership of 87,053 insured for a total sum of $83,761,562. The Vice-President, who is in charge of UNA's recording department, stated that the general trend has been toward greater amounts of insurance coverage taken out by the new members, indicating a greater awareness of the value of insurance by Ukrainians in the United States and Canada.

Mr. Sochan said that his department suffers from personnel shortages and that efforts continue to find two full-time employees which would allow for normal operation.

Mr. Zorych, who is in charge of the UNA office in Canada, was pleased with the results of last year's organizational drive in Canada which brought substantial gains in membership. He praised the work of branch organizers and officers, as well as the efforts of Supreme Officers, W. Didiuk, John Hewryk and D. Popadynech. He assessed the results of his recent trip through western Canada and offered suggestions on how to continue the progress of UNA activities throughout the land.

Mr. Kuropas spoke of the plans to invigorate UNA activity in the Chicago area, citing the upcoming District Committee meeting, the proposed UNA rally, a Women's Day and a youth rally—events which he hopes will contribute to the UNA jubilee anniversary drive designed to raise the organization's membership to 100,000.

Mrs. Dushnyk, one of the top organizers last year with 41 new members, reported on her activities in civic and women's groups and spoke of her efforts in encouraging youth to join the ranks of the UNA. She attends branch and district committee meetings and is currently preparing material for the second edition of "UNA Women's Tribune," a non-periodical supplement of Svoboda.

Executive Committee . . .

(Concluded from p.1) In 1966, Mr. Lesawyer said that the total assets of the UNA had increased by $1,740,000, which is approximately $300,000 less than the previous year. He said that it was an impressive figure, considering the expenses for the UNA convention, increased dividend payments and higher outlays for organizational activity. The yield from investments has been quite satisfactory. Soyuzivka's profit of $30,000, from a gross of $290,000 has been reinvested in various improvements of facilities and accommodations. In examining membership statistics the president noted that among the total 802 losses through deaths, 18 persons were under the age of 21. He said that this points up the need of adequate insurance coverage for younger people, a fact that must be constantly brought to the attention of both parents and children. Mr. Lesawyer also noted that the number of members 82 years of age and over is steadily increasing. These members receive dividends equaling 12 months' dues on their certificates. The question of a new home office for the UNA remains unresolved for the time being, said Mr. Lesawyer, because of complications in connection with the proposed redevelopment plans in Jersey City. The matter will be clarified in the near future and a decision on the specific project will be made accordingly. The president gave a great deal of attention to the three-year membership drive and offered a series of suggestions on how to proceed toward the attainment of the objective of 100,000 members by 1969. The second volume of "Ukraine: A Concise Encyclopaedia" is reaching its final stages of preparation, according to the report of Mr. Dragan, and stands a good chance of being published in 1968, on the eve of UNA's 75th anniversary. The book, edited by Prof. Volodymyr Kubijovych, may be ready for printing by the end of the year. Like the first volume, it will be published by the University of Toronto Press, with UNA financing the publication.

UYL-NA CORNER

By GEORGE PANKRATH

The appointments of a Trendette editor, subscription manager and District Organizer, as well as reports on the upcoming sports rally and convention, were on the main agenda of a meeting of the executive board of the Ukrainian Youth League of North America in Rochester on Saturday, January 28th. The meeting was well attended considering the fact that a bad snowstorm had hit the Chicago, Detroit and Toronto areas making it impossible for the board members from these cities to be in attendance. President Robert Hussar opened the meeting at 1 p.m. After the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, he asked that the board approve the appointments of Ed Shewchuk of Syracuse as D.O., Oksana Lenyk of Rochester as Trendette editor and Carol Hussar, also of Rochester, as subscription manager. League advisor John Kuchmy, who is acting as chairman of this year's sports rally, set for Rochester on May 19th, 20th and 21st, gave a report on the progress being made. The Saturday night awards banquet will be held at the Ukrainian American Club. The bowling tournament will take place at North Park Lanes while all basketball competition will be held at Irondequoit High School. Those who took part in the 1963 competition, which also took place in Rochester, will remember this as the scene of that year's basketball tourney. A golf tournament is also being planned with a site yet to be named. President Hussar, in the absence of the Toronto board members, gave a brief report on the convention which will be held in Canada for the first time in the history of the UYL-NA over the Labor Day Weekend September 1st through 4th. He stated that the committee is hard at work on making this one of the finest conventions ever. Convention headquarters will be at the King Edward Sheraton in Toronto.

New York to See Ukrainian Version of 'Cinderella'

Three young dancers sharpen their steps in preparing for the production of "Cinderella."

By HELEN PEROZAK SMINDAK NEW YORK, N. Y. — On a recent Saturday afternoon, 56 little ladies in practice tights and leotards whirled and pirouetted across the floor of a Lower East side dance studio. The performers will be attired in stylized costumes of the Hetman period. Fairy-tale sets were prepared under the direction of Taras Hirniak and props were readied by Olenka Bohachevsky.

Runs Own School The performers, ranging in age from five-and-a-half to 14-and-a-half years, are all members of Miss Pryma's ballet school. The majority are first and second-year students while a few are in the third-year class. They have been working hard on the production for almost a year and are "very excited" about the ballet, their teacher says. All the girls are members of Ukrainian organizations and most belong to the UNA as well. In the roles of the principal characters are Kvitka Cisyk (Cinderella), Hanusia Rohozy and Oksana Hawryliuk (the stepsisters), Christia Slyvotaka (the stepmother), Nina Babiak (the fairy godmother) and Lila Kovalenko (the prince).

The little girls, however, were in another world — the fairy-tale world of palaces, golden coaches, liveried footmen and prancing steeds, a world inhabited by a fairy godmother, a wicked stepmother, a handsome prince and a beautiful young girl named Cinderella who makes friends with mice, birds and barnyard animals. That world of fantasy, already so real in the minds and hearts of the dancers, will become a reality for others next Saturday afternoon — at least for two hours — when Romá Pryma-Bohachevsky's young company presents her interpretation of "Cinderella" on the stage of the Fashion Institute of Technology at 227 West 27 Street. Titled "Popeliushka" in Ukrainian, the three-act ballet is an original composition by Miss Pryma with an original score by composer Ihor Sonevsky.

It is the first time that the popular children's tale has been set to ballet and music in a Ukrainian rendering. Adding a distinctly Ukrainian flavor to "Cinderella," Miss Pryma adapted Ukrainian dance steps and Ukrainian motifs to her choreography wherever possible, and Dr. Sonevsky made use of Ukrainian themes in his music. An old Ukrainian "habilka" forms the basis of the ballet's finale, during which (Concluded from p.1) in the U.S. and Canada. Mr. Kuropas reported that although some work has been done in the areas of theoretical research and collection of data, the committee is yet to avail itself of full cooperation of some existing educational organizations. The Cultural Committee has recommended that Mr. Kuropas and his committee proceed with the project as planned. Another matter given a great deal of attention was the recent news of arrests and persecution of Ukrainian intellectuals in Soviet Ukraine. Specific recommendations were made designed to arouse public opinion and bring this matter to the attention of influential circles in the West.

If approved by the Executive Committee, they will be gradually put into effect in cooperation with the Soyuzivka management. Also giving brief reports were Joseph Lesawyer, UNA Supreme President who is the Committee's chairman, and Anthony Dragan, Svoboda editor who serves as secretary.

Taking part in the meeting were the following: Mr. Lesawyer, Vice-Presidents Stephen Kuropas, Mrs. Mary Dushnyck, Bohdan Zorych and Walter Sochan, Supreme Secretary Jaroslav Padoch, Supreme Treasurer John Kolski, Dr. Walter Gallan, Myron Kuropas, Anthony Dragan, Viacheslav Davydenko, Ivan Kedryn, Bohdan Kráwciw, Dr. Luke Luciw, Leonid Poltava and Zenon Snylyk.

by the enormously taxing program he had chosen. Perhaps the greatest conglomeration of these difficulties occurred in a work dedicated to him: the sonata by Louis Nagel, a classmate of Rudnytsky's at Juilliard, and also only 24 years old. Written in 1962, this vigorous composition, although eclectic — with debts of inspirational gratitude owed to Stravinsky and Ginastera — made for easy and enjoyable listening.

The artist brought a dazzling virtuosity to the clearly defined themes, which were logically developed. Pianist Shows Brilliance In Washington Recital

WASHINGTON, D. A Leventritt Award winner and, at 24, the youngest member of the University of Indiana music faculty, Rudnytsky is well known on the local scene, having been a winner of the area's two most important contests: the International Bach competition and the Friday Morning Music Club Foundation Scholarship Award.

American Friends of ABN to Hold Convention in New York

NEW YORK, N. Y. — The annual convention of the Organization of American Friends of the Anti-Bolshevik Bloc of Nations will take place Sunday, February 19, at the Commodore Hotel here, according to an announcement by Dr. Ivan Docheff, chairman.

Representatives of more than 15 nations, currently under Communist domination, will take part in the proceedings scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. The agenda includes the opening address by the organization's president, Dr.

Nestor Procyk, from Buffalo, N.Y., and the report on activity by the chairman of the executive board, Dr. I. Docheff. Among proposed resolutions is one rejecting the American government's new policy of cooperation with the Soviet Union. Instead, the organization is proposing a strong policy against communism, one that would lead to the liberation of all enslaved nations. The convention is expected to draw delegates from the organization's chapters across the nation.

SPORTS SCENE By Oleh Zaadiuk

Soccer on TV - It's Official

Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS) made it official. A National Professional Soccer League game of the week will be presented live and in color every Sunday afternoon exclusively on the network from Sunday, April 16, to September 3. The announcement, made by William C. MacPhail, vice-president of CBS Sports, squashed some rumors and statements that the contract between CBS and the NPSL (unsanctioned) may be terminated.

Sitch tied Orange Alberona, 1-1, but won the game on corner kicks (4-0).

Appeal For Amateurs

Abe Korsower, a columnist for the National Soccer News, published in Chicago, appealed on behalf of the U.S. Olympic and Pan-American teams to the United States Soccer Football Association and the newly formed North American Pro Soccer League.

Korsower, in an open letter, asks that as the U.S. National soccer team is about to embark on a program of training, "what are either one of you doing" to help it along. "Are we once again going to gather our team together on a catch-as-catch-can basis?" he queries, "or... are we going to take the bull by the horn and bring him down."

Korsower feels that in the past little was done to help the team. And, he says, there are ways to make the team the best ever. He proposes that the two organizations provide for games in each franchised city and pay for them. Korsower estimates that the cost would be around $5,000 per game.

The "national" team would play, according to Korsower, against the U.S. Open Challenge Cup holders, U.S. Amateur Champions, German-American All-Stars of N.Y., Los Angeles All-Stars and Chicago All-Stars.

From our side, we hope that the proposal is given serious consideration.

Inter Wins

Inter Milan won a slim 1-0 victory over Real Madrid in the first game of their European Cup quarterfinals in Milan. The two teams met for the second time March 1st.

A crowd of 70,000 watched as Milan defeated Real Madrid, six-time winner of the Cup.

PENN-OHIO TOURNEY DATE SET

CLEVELAND, O. — The sixth annual Penn-Ohio Bowling Tournament of the Ukrainian National Association will be held in Cleveland, O., May 6th at the Berea Lanes. The tournament, which attracts large turnouts of bowlers from UNA Branches in Pennsylvania and Ohio, will be held this year three weeks after UNA's National Tournament in Rochester, N.Y.

The tournament committee has scheduled its next meeting for March 5th in Cleveland, according to Wlademir Wladyka, publicity chairman.
