

"WE INTEND TO BURY NO ONE AND WE DO NOT INTEND TO BE BURIED."

СВОБОДА УКРАЇНСЬКИЙ ЩОДЕННИК

СВОБОДА UKRAINIAN DAILY

Address: The Ukrainian Weekly 81-83 Grand Street Jersey City, N.J. 07303

The Ukrainian Weekly Section

Mass Turnout Expected At Freedom Rally on November 18

UKRAINIAN LEADERS PLACE NEW HOPES ON WORLD CONGRESS OF FREE UKRAINIANS

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Five prominent Ukrainian leaders, including a high-ranking representative of the Ukrainian clergy, look forward to the World Congress of Free Ukrainians as a historic event with vast ramifications for Ukrainian organized life in the free world and our community's role in helping the Ukrainian people regain their long-sought freedom.

Scholars, Scientists to Hold Two-Day World Congress

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Ukrainian scholars, scientists and educators from more than a dozen countries of the free world will convene for a two-day session within the framework of the World Congress of Free Ukrainians on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 14-15 here.

Hundreds Of Youth To Take Part In Festival At Garden

PUBLIC PROCLAMATION OF RESOLUTIONS, STATEMENTS TO CONCLUDE PROGRAM

Parish Celebrates Jubilee Despite Hotel Strike

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — October 1, 1967 will go down in the history of St. John the Baptist Ukrainian Catholic Church South Side Pittsburgh, Pa., as a most memorable day. It was the celebration of the Church's diamond Jubilee.

Students Reactivate Club in New York, Plan Blendin'67

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Some sixty Ukrainian students, representing almost every college and university of the New York Metropolitan area, met at New York University's Loeb Student Center on Friday, October 20, to renew the activity of the New York Ukrainian Student Association.

Yaroslav Stetzko to Speak At Anti-Red Rally in New York

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Yaroslav Stetzko, president of the Anti-Bolshevik Bloc of Nations and one of the leading Ukrainian political figures, will address a rally here Sunday, November 5, staged by the Order of Lafayette veterans organization.

Ukrainian Democrats Active In New Jersey

Ukrainian Democrats of New Jersey, a statewide organization that is rapidly growing in membership, launched their activity this Fall with a dinner-dance on October 21 in Elizabeth.

SVU TO TAKE PART IN ANTI-SOVIET RALLY

NEW YORK, N.Y. — The Association for the Liberation of Ukraine (SVU) will be one of many organizations picketing against the USSR at the United Nations today and at the Soviet Embassy here tomorrow.

PRESUMED DEAD, WOMAN IS ALIVE

TORONTO, Ont. — A Toronto coroner signed a death certificate for the supposedly deceased Mary Sotnick, and the woman was legally dead. Six days later, according to a Toronto Telegram story, she gently kissed her son, and the hospital room, in which she had apparently come back from the "other" side, "radiated love — and life."

