BISHOPS-ELECT STOCK, LOSTEN RECEIVED BY CARDINAL SLIPIY ARCHBISHOP-MAJOR SUGGESTS POSTPONEMENT OF CONSECRATION UNTIL CONVOCATION OF SYNOD

Msgr. Losten and Msgr. Stock before they left for Rome.

JERSEY CITY, N.J. — Archbishop-Major Josyf Cardinal Slipiy received Bishops-Elect John Stock and Basil Losten in a special audience at his residence in Rome on Friday, April 14, imparted his blessings to them and suggested that they delay their consecration, scheduled for May 25, until the convocation of a Synod, possibly in Winnipeg in June.

Ask Early Audience

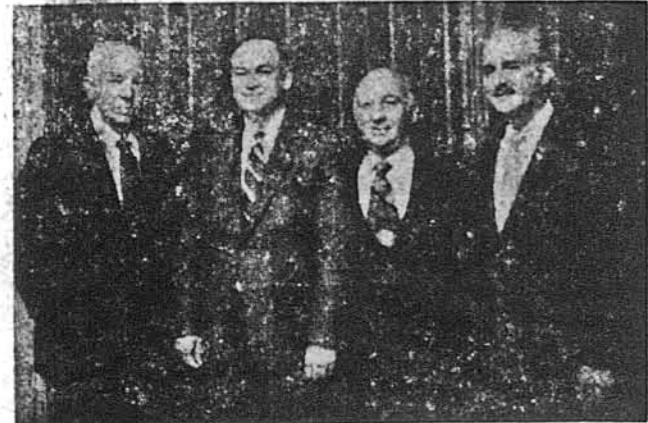

The newly named Bishops of the Ukrainian Catholic Church arrived in Rome May 12th and asked for an early audience with Archbishop-Major Josyf who was vacationing outside of Rome at the time. They were met by Rev. Lubomyr Huzar at the airport, who informed the Bishops that an audience could not be held until Sunday. The Bishops, however, asked for an earlier audience which the Archbishop-Major eventually granted them on Friday.

At the outset of the audience the Bishops expressed their loyalty and support for the Ukrainian Cardinal's efforts to secure autonomy for the Ukrainian Catholic Church, asked him for his blessings and invited him to their consecration in Philadelphia.

The Archbishop-Major said that he will not be able to attend the consecration ceremonies because of other commitments and suggested that they postpone the rites until the convocation of a Synod in Winnipeg. He said no date for the Synod has been set, but that they would be informed in due time.

Cardinal Slipiy informed the Bishops that he will be in Canada early in June, inferring that a Synod may be convened at that time.

Expresses Gratitude

5,000 AT TORONTO RALLY ASK FOR RELEASE OF MOROZ

ASK TRUDEAU TO INTERCEDE

TORONTO, Ont. — Some 5,000 candles lit Nathan Phillips Square here Sunday, May 9, as Ukrainians gathered at the rally organized to assert Ukrainian solidarity in defense of Valentyn Moro.

The city of Toronto was represented on the platform of speakers by Alderman Tony O'Donoghue and Ontario by John Yaremko, Provincial Secretary and Citizenship Minister.

Walter Tarnopolsky, law school dean at the University of Windsor, Ontario, pointed out that "most nations have accepted the world-wide human rights code, but in the Soviet Union such basic freedoms are not permitted."

One of Several

The Toronto rally, one of several across Canada initiated by the Ukrainian Canadian Students Union, (SUSK), was especially pertinent at this time as the purpose was to further imprint the urgency of the persecution of dissenting intellectuals in Ukraine on the Canadian government.

A resolution was sent from the rally to Ottawa urging Prime Minister Trudeau to ask for Moro's release when Mr. Trudeau visits the Soviet Union. During his 10-day visit, which started last Monday, the Prime Minister was scheduled to spend two days in the Ukrainian SSR.

Aligning themselves in support of the Ukrainian were delegations of various ethnic groups, including those of Estonian, Latvian and Lithuanian descent.

The rally opened with the Canadian National Anthem after which the president of the Toronto branch of the Ukrainian Canadian Committee (UCC), B. Maksymovych, spoke in both Ukrainian and English, stating the purpose of the manifestation and the need for "freedom to express prayer and thought." Bishop

Valentyn Moroz Transferred To Vladimir Prison

BALTIMORE, Md.—Valentyn Moroz, 35, the Ukrainian author and historian sentenced to nine years of hard labor and five years of exile, has been transferred to the Vladimir prison for solitary confinement, according to the "Smolokyp" Information Service, which said it obtained the news from the clandestinely published "Ukrainian Herald."

In connection with the new conviction of Moroz and the series of protests in his defense, a wave of new arrests and repressions has begun in Ukraine, says the fifth issue of the "Ukrainian Herald."

Among the known intellectuals arrested are: Pastukh, a teacher, and Victor Ivanyenko, a literary critic. Others such as Atena Volynska, a poetess, Ivan Honchar, a museum director, Nina Matvienko, a singer, have been subjected to interrogation by the KGB.

UCCA REAFFIRMS SUPPORT FOR CATHOLIC PATRIARCHATE

NEW YORK, N.Y. (UCCA Special). — On Saturday, May 15, 1971 the UCCA Executive Board and the Policy Board held their separate meetings at the Ukrainian Institute of America, at which a number of relevant problems were discussed, among them recent developments in the Ukrainian Catholic Church in connection with the nomination of two Ukrainian Catholic Bishops by the Holy See.

Tribute

The Executive Board paid tribute to the late Metropolitan John Theodorovich, head of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church in the U.S.A., who died on May 3, 1971, in Philadelphia.

At the Executive Board meeting, chaired by UCCA Executive Vice-President Joseph Lesawyer, Dr. Lev E. Dobriansky, UCCA President, reported on his activities in the Nation's capital, as well as cooperation on a number of projects and congressional resolutions on Ukrainian independence, the Ethnic Heritage Study Centers, the Captive Nations Committee in the House of Representatives, the Genocide Convention, and others. U.S. policy moves with respect to Red China and Europe were also discussed.

Mr. Lesawyer reported on the work of the Committee on Religious Affairs and its meeting with representatives of the Society for the Promotion of the Patriarchal System for the Ukrainian Catholic Church with respect to joint cooperation in pursuance of common objectives as regards the Ukrainian Catholic Church.

Mykola Semanyshyn, UCCA Youth Coordinator, reported on the nation-wide protest action sponsored by youth organizations under the auspices of the UCCA for the release of Valentyn Moroz, young Ukrainian historian, who has been sentenced to 9 years at hard labor by a Communist court in Ukraine for his literary activities.

Assault Discussed

The Board also discussed the assault by a Polish American group on young Ukrainian pickets in Chicago, and voted to send a protest to the Polish American Congress, which had sponsored the Polish manifestation.

Administrative Director Ivan Bazarko reported on a number of current matters connected with operations of the UCCA, and also read the financial report in the absence of UCCA Treasurer Peter Puclo.

Mrs. Stephanie Pushkar, a UCCA Vice-President and President of the Ukrainian National Women's League of America, reported on preparations for the observance connected with the 100th anniversary of birth of Lesia Ukrainka, which will take place in Cleveland, Ohio, this fall.

At the conclusion Anthony Dragan, editor of Svoboda presented a draft resolution in support of the movement for the autonomy of the Ukrainian Catholic Church and the establishment of a Ukrainian Catholic Patriarchate. After a thorough discussion, the resolution was adopted.

Policy Board

The UCCA Policy Board met in the afternoon and heard five speakers: Joseph Lesawyer, President of the World Congress of Free Ukrainians (WCFU), who reported on the visit to Josyf Cardinal Slipiy and Giovanni Cardinal Villot in Rome by the delegation of the WCFU; Dr. Volodymyr Sawchak, who spoke on the internal activities of the Ukrainian community; Dr. Gregory Luznytsky, who discussed the problems connected with the autonomy of the Ukrainian Catholic Church and Executive Director of the WCFU, Dr. Michael Sosnovsky, who dealt with Ukrainian political activities outside the Ukrainian community. Mr. Vasyl Pasichniak spoke extensively on the rights of Ukrainian Catholics to their own patriarchate.

A long and protracted discussion ensued in which several members of the Policy Board participated. At the conclusion a committee on resolutions was selected, which discussed and amended the original resolution of the UCCA Executive Board. It was adopted unanimously.

In the resolution, both the UCCA Executive Board and Policy Board expressed full support of Cardinal Slipiy's endeavors, the Synod of the Ukrainian Catholic Church and its decisions in the matter of a patriarchal system; it called for opposition to any infractions "from whatever side they may come," as they are against the best interests not only of the Ukrainian Catholic Church, but of the Universal Catholic Church as well; it called on all to exert efforts to bring about a full unity of Ukrainian bishops, the clergy and the faithful for the good of the autonomy of the Ukrainian Catholic Church; finally, it called for coordination of all activities in the matter of autonomy and the establishment of a patriarchal system in the Ukrainian Catholic Church through the Committee on Religious Affairs of the Ukrainian Congress Committee of America.

Sitch Loses In Cup Tie

NEWARK, N.J. — Newark's "Chornomorska Sitch" soccer team was eliminated last Sunday from further cup competition by Inter-Italia S.C. of Cleveland, O., by a score of 0-2, in a game played at Farther's Grove in Union, N.J.

Some 500 spectators saw the Sitch booters miss several scoring chances in the evenly played first half. Ironically, it was during Sitch's second half-offensive that the Clevelanders broke through for their two goals. McMillan scored both of them at the 68th and 78th minutes.

The game, played on a muddy field, was the eastern final for the U.S. amateur cup. It was Sitch's first loss, including Shaefer League competition, in 26 matches this season. Sitch has four league games left.

On Thursday, May 28, Sitch will host Skelmersdale United of England at Farther's Grove in a friendly match. The British team won the championship of the first amateur division this season. Kickoff is set for 8 p.m.

Artist Profiled in Paper

She considers her art autobiographical. "Actually it is very consistent with my own philosophical development," she said.

Aptitude Recognized

Mrs. Petryshyn and her family came to the United States in 1949, emigrating from a displaced persons camp in Augsburg, Germany, where they took refuge after fleeing from Ukraine in World War II. Her aptitude in art drew the attention of two high school teachers in New York City, who urged her father to further her art education.

Although Petryshyn also is from Ukraine, the couple did not meet until both were in New York. He and his family came to this country from a dp camp at Berchtesgaden, Germany, arriving here in 1950.

By the time of their 1956 marriage, Mrs. Petryshyn was a year out of Hunter College and working as a commercial artist designing textiles. After marriage, she painted and as her husband, then studying for a doctorate at Columbia University, explained, "Arka worked a bit to help."

Mrs. Petryshyn earned a master's degree in art history from Hunter in 1964. She also studied at the Art Students League in New York.

After Petryshyn joined the mathematics faculty of the University of Chicago as an associate professor in 1964, she devoted herself to painting, preparing first for another exhibition at Bodley Gallery and later for two Chicago shows.

The 1964 Bodley show was so successful that her works were acquired by several museums and many private collectors. She now has work in the permanent collections of the Museum of Arts and Sciences in Evansville, Ind.; Witte Museum of San Antonio, Tex.; George Peabody Museum in Nashville, Tenn.; Rutgers University Art Gallery here and the Svydnk Museum in Czechoslovakia.

In Chicago, she also received a scholarship and began doctoral studies in the Committee on the History of Culture at the University of Chicago. She has two chapters to go on a thesis on nouveau art to complete the Ph.D. degree.

Mrs. Petryshyn, who came to New Brunswick in 1967 when her husband was appointed a professor on the Rutgers mathematics faculty, taught art history at Hunter College and Douglass College for a time, but now has given up teaching "to complete my work with the University of Chicago and to devote more time to painting."

She has converted a room of her third floor apartment into a studio, but is looking for better studio facilities in the area. She'd like to widen her art output by taking up printmaking too.

Classic Females

That painting borrowed from the Clifton owner strikingly resembles "Girls in Grass," the drawing reproduced on the exhibition catalog cover. In both, aloof, classic females are shown half hidden by sharply delineated tall grass and flowers. The painting is bright and colorful, the drawing has stark contrasts of black and white.

"My most recent paintings," said the mid-30ish artist, "bring out further the expression of passivity, alienation and lack of communication among the figures, in many cases due to their contrast with the overwhelming vitality of the luxuriant California vegetation."

Mrs. Petryshyn and her husband, both natives of Ukraine, spent January and February in Pasadena, Calif., where he was at the California Institute of Technology. He is on leave from Rutgers this academic year.

In her paintings and drawings, she puts "stress on nature and freedom," just as she finds the flower children do.

Writes Criticism

Mrs. Petryshyn also writes art criticism. She is author of "Suchasnist," a Ukrainian language monthly published in Munich, Germany.

"It's a lot of work. There's never boredom in the house," proudly commented her husband.
