DR. YARYMOVYCH APPOINTED CHIEF SCIENTIST FOR U.S. AIR FORCE

KERHONKSON, N.Y. — Dr. Michael I. Yarymovych aerospace engineer and former Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Air Force, has been appointed as Chief Scientist for the U.S. Air Force. Dr. Yarymovych started work at his new position in Washington, D.C., August 1. Dr. Yarymovych recently returned from Europe where he was director of the Advisory Group for Aerospace Research and Development (AGARD) for the past three years. AGARD is a scientific branch of NATO, based in Paris, France, and consists of some 600 western scientists.

Coming to the United States from Germany in 1950, Dr. Yarymovych began studying aeronautical engineering at New York University. Upon completing NYU, he entered Columbia University and from there he received a master's and a doctorate in engineering mechanics. During his student days at Columbia, Dr. Yarymovych was very active in Ukrainian student organizations. He was president of the Ukrainian Student Club at Columbia, and he also served on the Executive Board of SUSTA, being at one time editor of the SUSTA "Student Word" in "Svoboda", and also vice-president of SUSTA. It was during his term in office that the idea of creating a Ukrainian Studies Chair at some prestigious American university was initiated.

In space research. In 1962 he began his work at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) as part of the "Apollo" program. His job consisted of planning the engineering specifications for the entire program, and was given the position of assistant director for systems engineering. From there, Dr. Yarymovych was assigned to the Manned Orbital Mission studies, which consisted of planning what future course should be taken after the completion of the Apollo program. In 1968, Dr. Yarymovych was assigned to the Air Force

Anna Slobodian Dies

ELIZABETH, N.J. — As we were going to press, news reached our desk that Mrs. Anna Slobodian, wife of former UNA Treasurer Roman Slobodian, died after a prolonged heart ailment Thursday night, August 16. She was 74 years old. Surviving, in addition to her husband, are two sons, Daniel and Gregory, a daughter, Mrs. Helen Sydorowych, and five grandchildren. Funeral services will be held Monday morning, August 20, from the Krowicki and McCracken Funeral Home, 2124 St. George's Avenue, in Linden, N.J., to St. Vladimir's Ukrainian Catholic Church in Elizabeth, with interment at Evergreen Cemetery in Elizabeth.

Soyuzivka Awaits Tennis, Swimming Championships

KERHONKSON, N.Y. — Some 200 Ukrainian tennis players and swimmers from across the U.S. and Canada will be making their way to Soyuzivka in less than two weeks for the annual national championships in these two sports, slated for the Labor Day weekend. The traditional sports meet, held here for 18 consecutive years, is sanctioned by the Association of Ukrainian Sports Club of North America (USCAK), the highest governing body of Ukrainian sports on this continent, and constitutes the climax of the year's sports activities. The dual competition at the UNA resort is organized by the Carpathian-Ski Club

Fire 7 Professors, Arrest 9 Students in Lviv

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Seven members of the Lviv State University faculty were fired last May and nine Ukrainian students were arrested by the KGB for alleged dissemination of anti-Soviet literature and for protesting against Russification. The students were subsequently released, said the Information Service of the Ukrainian Supreme Liberation Council (Abroad) citing dissident sources in Ukraine, but they were dismissed from the University along with the seven lecturers.

While detained by the KGB, said the account, the students accused the authorities of barring them from historical source material. They said that the process of learning requires free access to all sources of knowledge and cited their colleagues in natural sciences who do have access to scientific sources and research material.

Protest Russification

The nine students, said the sources, were enrolled in the departments of history, journalism and medicine. They were accused by the KGB of disseminating leaflets at the University, protesting against Russification of Ukraine and discrimination against the Ukrainian language, history and literature.

Two special commissions, said the account, had arrived in Lviv to investigate the case, one from Kiev, led by Valentyn Malanchuk, secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Ukraine, and another one from Moscow.

Ban on Shevchenko

Earlier in the year, said the dissident sources, 11 students of Ukrainian philology and two students of ancient philology were dismissed from the Lviv University for allegedly protesting against the ban on commemorative observances of Shevchenko anniversaries and for disseminating a publication, entitled "Postup" (Progress).

Orthodox Prelates Meet, Plan Bishops' Conference

TORONTO, Ont. — A conference of the hierarchs of the three existing Ukrainian Orthodox Metropolia, the last step before the possible convocation of a joint synod of bishops, is being planned for October of this year, it was announced here after the meeting of the ranking prelates of the Ukrainian Orthodox Churches. Plans for the October conference also envision the meeting of representatives of the Ukrainian Orthodox laity. Archbishop Mstyslav, who is Metropolitan of both the Ukrainian Autocephalous Orthodox Church and of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of the USA, met with Archbishop Michael, head of the Ukrainian Greek-Orthodox Church in Canada, Tuesday July 24, shortly after his return from Europe where he presided over the Extraordinary Synod of the UAOC. Metropolitan Mstyslav informed Archbishop Michael of the proceedings and decisions of the Extraordinary Synod held in Paris June 29 through July 1. The two prelates discussed a series of relevant questions in the course of the meeting. There was a consensus of opinion on many of the aspects under scrutiny relating to the status and future course of the Ukrainian Orthodoxy in the free world. It was revealed earlier that the hierarchy of the Ukrainian Greek-Orthodox Church in Canada favored the convocation of a joint synod of bishops of the three existing metropolia. The decision to convene such a synod is seen as a decisive step towards unification of all Ukrainian Orthodoxy in the free world under single spiritual leadership in the form of the joint synod of bishops.

Cardinal Josyf Had Two Audiences With Pope Paul

ROME, Italy. — Archbishop-Major Josyf Cardinal Slipyi, Primate of the Ukrainian Particular (Pomina) Church, had two audiences with Pope Paul VI shortly after his return to the Vatican after wide-ranging visitations in Australia, Japan, Formosa, Canada, United States and Europe. The second audience, according to the Ukrainian Press Bureau here, took place Saturday, July 14. The Bureau said that the Supreme Pontiff had received the Ukrainian Cardinal at an earlier audience which was devoted to the discussion of the Major Archbishop's impressions and observations during his visitations of Ukrainian settlements in the free world. The subject matter of the second audience was not disclosed, but Ukrainian sources in Rome surmised that Cardinal Josyf had again raised the question of the Ukrainian Catholic Church's current status and future course.

Violinist, Employees Ensemble At Soyuzivka Tonight

MARY LESAWYER TO PERFORM NEXT SATURDAY
KERHONKSON, N.Y. — The puppet theater of Ukrainian students at the University of Western Ontario, London, Ont., which was scheduled to be staged at tonight's concert here has been canceled due to a fire. The students informed Soyuzivka manager Walter Kwas by telegram Tuesday noon that an accidental fire destroyed their 20 puppets, props, and equipment. Taking the place of the puppet show will be a program of songs, music, dances

MATHEW KOSTYSHYN, PIONEER-POET, HONORED AT 85

LYNBROOK, N.Y. — Mathew Kostyshyn, a pioneer-poet whose works have been adorning the pages of Svoboda and other UNA publications for some five decades now, was honored by the organization which he served with pride and loyalty on his 85th birthday Friday, August 10.

In a warm family setting at the home of his daughter here, with whom he now lives, surrounded by children, grandchildren and friendly, admiring neighbors, Mr. Kostyshyn beamed with joy as UNA President Joseph Lesawyer presented the octogenarian with a UNA certificate of merit and a Svoboda press card designating him the daily's "first honorary staff member."

Also on hand to convey felicitations to Mr. Kostyshyn on that day was Svoboda Editor-in-Chief Anthony Dragan, editors Bohdan Krawciw and Zenon Snylyk, and UNA Branch 327 secretary Andronik Kopystianskyj who also had a gift for the man who is the Branch's oldest and certainly most revered member.

Self-Educated

Mr. Kostyshyn, who was born in 1888 in the village Derehova near Rohatyn, western Ukraine, left his native country 60 years ago. The youngest child in a family of seven children, he came first to Canada and then took up permanent residence in the United States. With only a few grades of schooling, he worked at various menial jobs trying to make ends meet.

A self-educated man, Mr. Kostyshyn acquired knowledge by reading everything in sight—books, magazines, newspapers. Endowed with a natural talent for writing, he then put his thoughts and feelings on paper in verse form. He first published his poems in 1918, and since 1923 he has contributed regularly to Svoboda and the annual UNA almanacs. His poetry, simple, warm and candid, is imbued with the spirit of the Ukrainian pioneering saga on this continent, reflecting the hardships, the yearnings, the hopes and the dreams of the early immigrants. Many of his verses are topical in nature, written for specific occasions and dedicated to signal events in Ukraine's history.

Involved in Community

Apart from his work and writing, Mr. Kostyshyn was strongly involved in the budding Ukrainian community life here. He became a mem-

Ukrainians from U.S., Canada Rally at SUMA Camp

By Ihor Diaboha
ELLENVILLE, N.Y. — Some 5,000 Ukrainians from across the United States and Canada rallied here at the SUMA camp the weekend of July 28 and 29. This 24th annual rally, sponsored by the Organizations of the Ukrainian Liberation Front, commemorated the 30th anniversary since the creation of the Anti-Bolshevik Bloc of Nations, and was conducted under the motto of "Freedom for nations, freedom for individuals."

The weekend's activities included both political addresses and entertainment. The official opening ceremonies of the rally did not take place until Sunday afternoon, but Saturday a panel discussion and a concert was held. Taking part in the panel, whose topic was the current role of the ABN, were: Prof. G. Botoshani; Dr. A. App; George Woloshyn; Dr. W. Pleschachevsky; and Dr. Ivan Docheff as moderator. The evening's concert program included appearances by: "Baturyn", SUM brass band from Toronto, Ont., under the baton of Wasyl Kardash; "Shelest Yaseniv", female vocal octet from Binghamton, N.Y. under the direction of Halyna Kurylo; "Karavana", male-vocal quartet; the "Verkhovynsi" SUMA dancers from New York, N.Y., choreographer Oleh Genza; and Eugene Kurylo reciting Ivan Franko's "Ivan Vyshynsky". After the concert a dance was held for the participants and guests.

Panel Discussion

Sunday morning, Very Rev. Dr. Volodymyr Gawlich, pastor of St. George Ukrainian Catholic Church in New York, and Rev. Wolodymyr Bazylewsky, Uniondale, N.Y., celebrated the Catholic and Orthodox Divine Liturgies in the respective chapels. After the liturgies, a joint requiem service was offered for those who died in the struggle for the freedom of Ukraine. The brass band "Baturyn" rendered religious hymns during the Catholic Liturgy and the requiem service. In the afternoon, Wolodymyr Lewenetz, secretary of the Executive Board of the Organization for the Defense of Four Freedoms of Ukraine, opened the rally, introduced the 27-member honorary presidium, and delivered the Ukrainian language greetings. Among the members of the

Dauphin: A Prayer of Thanks And a Tribute to Pioneers

A fitting climax to the four-day Canada's Ukrainian National Festival, held August 2-5 this year, was a religious service celebrated at the historic site where Fr. Nestor Dmytriw offered the first Liturgy on Canadian soil in 1897. The UNA sponsored program was held Sunday noon, August 5, on the banks of the Drifting River some 15 miles north-west of Dauphin. The event was attended by scores of UNA'ers, led by the Festival's Hospodar and Hospodynna, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lesawyer, and many area Ukrainians. Photo above shows the Very Rev. Dmytro Luchak, head of the Consistory of the Ukrainian Greek-Orthodox Church during the celebration of the outdoor Moleben. Assisting Fr. Luchak were Frs. S. Kychuk, M. Kreschuk, E. Stefaniuk, I. Kachuk and W. Wasyliv. Seen in the background is St. Michael's Church built on the historic site.
