Switucha Named First Secretary of Canadian Embassy in Japan

OTTAWA, Ont. — Mykola Switucha, an engineer by profession and a Ukrainian community activist, was appointed by the Canadian government as First Secretary in charge of metals, minerals, and energy of the Canadian Embassy in Tokyo, Japan.

According to an official communiqué released here, Mr. Switucha will be responsible for the further development of technical, economic and trade agreements between Canada and Japan. His designated territory will include not only Japan but also the Philippines, Hong Kong, Korea and Taiwan.

Among the duties at his new position, Mr. Switucha is to "analyze long term demand and material procurement strategies for mineral and energy resources," the communiqué stated. He also will report on the structure and status of metal and mineral industry in his territory and the government's legislation concerning them. In general, any mineral, metal or energy development which can potentially affect Canadian mineral trade is to be reported by Mr. Switucha to Ottawa.

Mr. Switucha will also act as the Canadian representative to international conferences and will serve as technical advisor to the Canadian Missions in his territory.

Mykola Switucha

Mr. Switucha left for Japan August 20th and will assume the post as of September 1st.

Mr. Switucha has been active in Ukrainian community affairs for many years. He is the former head of the national Plast command in Canada.

Mr. Switucha is also former president of UNA Branch 492 in Ottawa, of which he and his family are still members.

UN DEPUTY SECRETARY GENERAL VISITS KIEV

KIEV, Ukraine. — V. Levandovskiy, deputy secretary-general of the United Nations, visited Kiev on the invitation of the minister of foreign affairs of the Soviet Union, according to RATAU sources dated July 18th.

During his stay in Ukraine, Levandovskiy met with H.H. Shevel, foreign minister of the Ukrainian SSR. Their talks centered on the activities of the UN, and the next session of the General Assembly.

LUCY DEMKIW IS SECOND RUNNER-UP IN MISS TEENAGE AMERICA CONTEST

VICKY ZAKALUK ALSO TAKES PART IN CONTEST

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Lucy Demkiw, daughter of Kathryn and Gregory Demkiw of Brooklyn, N.Y., was chosen second runner-up in the Miss Teenage America Contest held here at the New York Hilton and the Metromedia Television Studios from August 13 to 17. The pageant, which was taped on Friday, August 17, until the early morning hours, will be aired in the New York metropolitan area on Saturday, September 8, at 7 p.m. over WNEW-TV (Channel 5).

Along with the title of second runner-up, Miss Demkiw also received a trophy, and luggage and barbecue sets. At a previously held contest Monday, August 13, at the McAlpin Hotel, she was also chosen Miss New York City Teenager.

Janet Reeves, 16, of Columbus, Ga., won the title of Miss Teenage America and, along with it, $20,000 worth in prizes.

Among the 46 participants in the pageant was Vicky Zakaluk, 16, who earlier in the week was chosen Miss New York State Teenager. Miss Zakaluk, who is the daughter of Jean and John Zakaluk of Seaforth, N.Y., is a musically inclined girl. She sings, dances, plays the piano and violin, and would like to be a singer-entertainer when she grows up.

While in New York, the girls, all accompanied by a chaperon, had the opportunity to go on a cruise around

RELEASE NAMES OF ARRESTED PROFESSORS, STUDENTS IN UKRAINE

NEW YORK, N.Y. — The names of the seven professors of the Lviv State University who were dismissed last May and of the eleven students who were arrested and expelled from that institution, were released here by the Ukrainian Supreme Liberation Council (Abroad).

As reported in the Saturday, August 18, issue of The Ukrainian Weekly, both the professors and the students, who were subsequently released, were expelled from the university for allegedly disseminating anti-Soviet literature and for protesting against Russification.

Among the professors fired by the University authorities are:

Iryna Huzar, born 1905. She holds a doctorate in philology, author of textbooks in the German language and was also a German language instructor at Lviv State University since 1940;

Yosyp Kobiv, born 1910. Holds a doctorate in philology, former director of the Latin language chair, editor of the nonperiodical collection "Problems of classical philology," and the author of numerous other works; he was fired from his position under the pretext that during the Nazi occupation of Ukraine he headed a chess club in Lviv;

Oleksander Huts, physics instructor at the university. He was fired from his job because of his alleged acquaint-tance with M. Osadchy and V. Chornovil;

Lubomyra Popadiuk, German language instructor. She was dismissed from her teaching position under the pretext of also knowing Osadchy and Chornovil;

Teoklyst Pachovsky, born 1907. Holds a doctorate in philology, and is a literary expert who published many books on Ukrainian and Polish literature; he worked at the university since the completion of his studies in 1933; he was fired under the pretext that his father was a priest;

Hanna Lastovetska, born 1923. She holds a doctorate in philology, and since 1954 was an instructor in Polish language;

Khudash, psychology lecturer.

The eleven students who were expelled from the university in connection with the appearance of the samvydav publication "Postup" (Progress) and for protesting the cancellation of the Shevchenko anniversary commemoration are: Vasyl Hamschak, Volodymyr Udovychenko, Bohdan Rokyttsky, Halyna Yaremchuk, Valya Korniychuk, and Volodymyr Yavorsky, all from the Ukrainian philology department, and Leonid Filonov, Ivan Svarnyk, Volodymyr Kozovych, Marian Dolnevsky, and Thor Petryna, students of history and journalism.

KGB PRESSURES DZYUBA, SVITLYCHNY TO RETRACT

TORONTO, Ont. — The Soviet Secret Police (KGB) is pressuring two Ukrainian dissident intellectuals, Ivan Svitylchyn and Ivan Dzyuba, to retract their views on the status of human rights in the USSR, according to the "Bulletin" of the Committee in Defense of Soviet Political Prisoners based here.

Following their recent arrest and trial the two writers and literary critics were detained in a prison in Kiev. According to the information, which was received at the time the fifth issue of the "Bulletin" was being prepared for printing, both Svitylchyn and Dzyuba were ordered to publicly recant their views.

Svitylchyn was told to write or sign an open letter of confession and condemnation of his and similar "crimes."

Dzyuba is being forced to write a retraction of his book "Internationalism or Russification?" When written, this book would be made widely available to the general public both in the Soviet Union and throughout the free world.

Last year, this method of forcing recantations from Soviet dissidents succeeded in the case of Zynovia Franko, linguist, and Mykola Kholodny, poet. Both wrote open letters of confession to the press, condemning their own "wrong-doings" and those of others.

Also published in this issue of the "Bulletin" is an appeal for the immediate release of Dzyuba and Vyacheslav Chornovil by the newly formed Canadian organization, Committee to defend Ivan Dzyuba and Vyacheslav Chornovil.

Ukrainian Institute of America Plans Anniversary Observances

NEW YORK, N.Y. — The Board of Directors of the Ukrainian Institute of America met here Wednesday, August 22, and discussed plans for the upcoming 25th anniversary celebration of the Institute.

John O. Flis, New York attorney and chairman of the Jubilee committee, reported that an exhibit of member artists will be included in the observances. The celebration date was set for December 1, 1973.

The Board also approved a list of delegates and al-

1,500 TAKE PART IN UNA FESTIVAL HONORING SVOBODA "80TH"

BARNESVILLE, Pa. — A throng of some 1,500 UNA'ers, representing a cross-section of four generations of Ukrainians, paid tribute to the Ukrainian daily Svoboda on its eightieth anniversary in the course of a Soyuz sponsored Festival here: Saturday and Sunday, August 18-19, which was highlighted by a lavish and splendidly executed concert program of Ukrainian music, songs and dances.

Several busloads and hundreds of cars, with license plates of every state along the eastern seaboard and some from as far west as Michigan and Ohio, crowded through the gates of Barnesville's Lakewood Park early Saturday night and Sunday morning, bringing officers, members and friends of the UNA for the two-day program of festivities.

It was here, in the picturesque and rolling hills of Pennsylvania's anthracite coal region that the Ukrainian National Association was founded nearly 80 years ago by the early pioneer-immigrants toiling in the coal mines. It was Svoboda's founder and first editor, Fr. Gregory Hruska, who championed the cause of the UNA in the initial issues of the newspaper which began appearing on September 15, 1893. Upon Fr. Hruska's appeals and urgings, the UNA came into being on February 22, 1894, with the constituent assembly held that day in Shamokin, Pa., some 30 miles west from the site of last week's Festival.

The contributions of the UNA as a whole, its official organ Svoboda, now the oldest Ukrainian newspaper in the world, as well as those of Pennsylvania's Soyuz members were appropriately acknowledged by the state's Senate, whose member, the Hon. Fred Hobbs, read a special resolution, adopted earlier by the body on his proposal, designating August 19, 1973, as "UNA Day" here.

Mary Lesawyer Stars In Soyuzivka Concert Tonight

ANNA CHORNODOLSKA, SOYUZYVKA ENSEMBLE SCHEDULED FOR LABOR DAY WEEKEND

KERHONKSON, N.Y. — Mary Lesawyer, one of the most popular operatic singers on the Ukrainian scene, who has delighted thousands of Soyuzivka goers with her renditions of classical and popular Ukrainian songs since the inception of the Saturday night concerts, is the featured performer in tonight's program at the UNA estate here.

Mrs. Lesawyer, who has appeared in every major center of Ukrainian life on this continent as well as in Europe and South America, will render several arias, compositions and songs to the piano accompaniment of Mrs. Daria Karanowycz.

Also appearing on tonight's bill will be Natalka Lazirko, a young ballet student from Irvington, N.J. Miss Lazirko, who starred in Roma Pryma-Bohachevsky's recent production of "Peer Gynt," as well as in the previous production of the "Magic Flower," will be making her second appearance on the stage of Soyuzivka's Veselka auditorium this summer.

As usual, the entertainment program will be followed by a dance, with Soyuzivka's own band, under the direction of Walter Dobuschak providing the music. Singing with the band are Oksana Borbycz and Peter Galadza.

In the series of Sunday afternoon exhibits, it will be Slava Gerulak's turn to display her artistic works.

Sunday night, popular author and humorist Mykola Ponedliok will launch the re-

Remains of Anna Slobodian Laid to Rest

ELIZABETH, N.J. — The remains of Anna Slobodian, who died of a heart ailment Thursday, August 16, were laid to rest at the Evergreen Cemetery here Monday, August 20, after funeral services attended by her bereaved husband, children, grandchildren, UNA supreme officers and numerous friends.

Mrs. Slobodian, wife of former long-time UNA Supreme Treasurer Roman Slobodian, was 74 years old.

Born in Northampton, Pa., in the family of early Ukrainian immigrants Mrs. Slobodian was active in the Ukrainian community life since early adulthood. While in Northampton, she sang in the local church choir and was a member of the parish's organizations.

In Philadelphia and later in Elizabeth, she was active in UNA life and in the respective branches of the Ukrainian National Women's League of America. She was one of the charter members of a UNWLA branch in Elizabeth and remained active in it until her recent illness.

The body was interred at a family plot near the gravesite of the late Dr. Luke Myshuha, former editor-in-chief of Svoboda and a friend of the family.

Stepan Sprynsky Dies

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — As we were ready to go to press with this issue, news reached us that Stepan Sprynsky, Supreme Secretary of the Providence Association of Ukrainian Catholics for 20 years, died here Wednesday night, August 22, after a prolonged illness. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Sprynsky, who came to the United States in 1949 and was one of the leading figures in the Ukrainian community, was elected to the post of Providence's Secretary in 1953 and served in that capacity until his death. He was also president of the "Self-Reliance" Association and secretary of the Ukrainian Congress Committee of America.

Surviving are his wife, Theodora, daughter Mrs. Myroslawa Bowling, and two grandchildren. Funeral services are scheduled for Monday, August 27, from the Immaculate Conception Cathedral here to Fox Chase Cemetery.
