

Astoria Parish To Present Concert in Marking Anniversary

The "Moloda Dumka" choir directed by Yara Kekish.

NEW YORK, N.Y. — The Parish Council of Holy Cross Ukrainian Catholic Church in Astoria will sponsor a concert of Christmas carols, songs and dances, dedicated to the commemoration of the 56th anniversary of Ukrainian Independence proclamation.

The concert, to be held Sunday, February 10, will feature more than 200 performers, including St. Volodymyr's Ukrainian Catholic Church Choir from Hempstead, the School of Ukrainian Folk Ballet under the direction of Ulana Kunynska-Shmerewskaya and the Holy Cross Ukrainian Catholic Church Choir from Astoria.

Also appearing on the program will be the Young "Dumka" choir, and the Ukrainian Dancers of Astoria, directed by Elaine Oprysko.

The concert will be held at Bryant High School Auditorium, 31st Avenue and 48th Street, Astoria, at 4:00 p.m.

The Parish Council sponsored a similar concert last year, which, according to a spokesman of the Council, was a huge success, with more than 700 persons in attendance. The Council said the spokesman hopes that these concerts will offer encouragement especially to the young people of the Ukrainian community in Astoria to participate in the various cultural activities of the parish.

"We also hope," continued the spokesman, "that this concert, dedicated to the commemoration of Ukrainian independence, will draw many young people to attend the celebration of this day, since it is a sad fact that the traditional 'academia' held on this occasion are attended mostly by the senior members of the Ukrainian community."

The opening remarks at the concert will be delivered by Dr. John O. Flis. Volodymyr Hentisz will host the program.

The proceeds of the concert will be devoted to the remodeling of the Parish Hall, located at 37-09 31st Avenue in Astoria.

New York To Mark Independence Anniversary

NEW YORK, N.Y. — New York's concert marking the 56th anniversary of Ukraine's independence, originally scheduled for January 20 but cancelled due to the strike of the city schools' non-teaching personnel, has been rescheduled for this Sunday, February 10, informs the local UCCA branch.

The concert's program will differ from the original one in one point. Anna Kolesnik scheduled to appear three weeks ago will not appear because of her present U.S. concert tour.

The program will feature Philadelphia's "Prometheus" male chorus under the direction of Michael Diabola, a recitation by stage actress Valia Kalyn-Mahmet, the

UNA Branch in Buffalo Elects Officers, Delegates

BUFFALO, N.Y. — Atanas Kobryn, energetic UNA'er in the western New York area, was re-elected president of Branch 127 and chosen one of three delegates to the Association's 28th regular convention to be held in Philadelphia in May of this year.

The St. Nicholas Brotherhood Branch meeting was held Sunday, January 27, at St. Nicholas Ukrainian Catholic Church hall here. It was one of the best attended meetings in years and received coverage in the January 28th issue of the Buffalo Evening News.

The interest in the meeting reflects the growing importance of Soyuz, both as a fraternal and community organization, in the western New York area.

Re-elected with Mr. Kobryn, who is serving his fifth term as president, were the following officers: Mrs. Mary A. Harawus, secretary, Mrs. Czeslawa Szyzka, recording secretary, Peter Harawus, assistant secretary and treasurer, Alexander Bereznycky, cultural and social assistance affairs.

Newly-elected officers are: Ivan Drozdowsky, vice-president, Tymko Jurkiw, member-at-large, as well as the members of the auditing committee, Miss Sophie Sudyk, chairman, Michael Hnatiw and Mrs. Sophie Bezusko, members.

Mrs. Harawus and Mr. Drozdowsky join Mr. Kobryn as the Branch's delegates to the UNA Convention. Alternates are: Tadej Mychaskiw, Mrs. Anna Kaczor and Michael Mychaskiw.

Apart from hearing reports of the executive officers, the meeting devoted a great deal of time to the current convention-jubilee year membership drive.

The members also set plans for the celebration of UNA's 80th anniversary this year and for a session explaining social assistance programs available to the elderly.

Mr. Kobryn announced that as a delegate he will try to bring the 1978 convention to Buffalo.

Youngstown Remembers Ukraine's Independence

YOUNGSTOWN, N.Y. — State Senator Harry Meshele, appearing at the Ukrainian Independence Day concert sponsored by the local UCCA branch, read the resolution passed by the Ohio State Senate commemorating the 56th anniversary of Ukraine's freedom.

Included in this resolution, which was introduced by Sen. Meshele, were references to the current repressions against Ukrainian intellectuals.

Taking part in the program, held at the Dana Recreational Hall, Sunday, January 27, were Roman Rudnytsky, concert pianist and professor at Youngstown University's Dana School of Music, Suzanne Rouse-Rudnytsky, soloist, and pupils from the Saturday School of Ukrainian Subjects.

Delivering the invocation at the start of the program was Msgr. Leo Adamiak, and the concluding benediction was voiced by Very Rev. Dr.

Waterliet Community Marks Ukrainian Independence Day

WATERLIET, N.Y. — J. Leo O'Brien, Mayor of Waterliet, ordered the hoisting of the Ukrainian flag atop City Hall Tuesday, January 22, in observance of the 56th anniversary of Ukrainian independence.

The photo-story in the Saturday, January 19, issue of The Times Record of Troy, N.Y., reported the event by stating: "Just like the red, white and blue symbolized the American colonists' struggle for independence in 1776, the blue and gold flag of the Free Republic of Ukraine symbolizes that nation's ongoing struggle against Communist domination by the Soviet Union."

Presenting Mayor O'Brien with the Ukrainian flag were Very Rev. Bohdan Volosin, pastor of the St. Nicholas Ukrainian Catholic Church and Miss Luba Kushnir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Yaroslav Kushnir.

The local community marked the event with an appropriate program Sunday, January 20, at the Ukrainian American Citizens Club.

Chicago UNA'ers Plan Bowling Tourney

Chicago's bowlers finalize plans for tourney.

CHICAGO, Ill. — The Chicago UNA Bowling Committee is sponsoring a mixed doubles sweepstakes bowling tourney to be held here Saturday, March 2. Deadline for entries is Friday, February 22. The tourney will be held at the Jay Bee Recreation Center 2001 W. 51st Street.

A registration fee of $13.00 has been set for all doubles entries and at least one prize will be awarded for each 10 entries. The guaranteed prize for first place is $100. Special prizes to be awarded are: high double team scratch 3-game total, high individual game scratch for women, and high individual game scratch for men.

The handicap for mixed doubles is 70 percent of 400 and for the individual prizes it is 70 percent of 200.

The prizes will be awarded at a special buffet Saturday evening March 2, at 8:00 p.m.

For further information, registering for tourney and buffet, write to: John P. Evasluk, 5243 S. Seeley Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60609; Tel.: 434-1892.

Harvard Institute Acquires Dr. Dmytriw's Library

ROCHESTER, N.Y. — The Ukrainian Research Institute at Harvard University has acquired the late Dr. Gregory Dmytriw's entire library consisting of 889 books, as he had directed in his last will and testament.

The books were presented to the Institute's librarian Edward Kasynec, at the home of Dr. Dmytriw's widow, Mrs. M. Dmytriw, Friday, December 14, 1973, in the presence of Profs. M. Gadzinsky and O. Omecinsky, as well as M. Lalka. In addition to the bequest, Mrs. Dmytriw also agreed to the establishment of a "Dr. Dmytriw Fund" in order to raise money for more research and reference material for the library.

Edward Kasynec (third, left) looks over a book presented by Mrs. M. Dmytriw from the collection of her late husband. Looking on are (extreme left) Profs. O. Omecinsky and M. Gadzinsky.

Literary Works

The late Dr. Dmytriw's library contains dictionaries, linguistic and literary texts, and works of well known Ukrainian writers, which he collected for over two years. Dr. Dmytriw died last summer.

A physician by profession, the late Dr. Dmytriw also authored two works, "Proty Khvyli" (Against the Waves, 1964) and "V Borotbi za Pravdu" (In Defense of Truth, 1970), which also contain some biographical information about the author.

Martyrology of Orthodox Church Featured in "Quarterly"

NEW YORK, N.Y. (UCCA Special). — The rebirth of the Ukrainian Autocephalous Orthodox Church, the escape of the Kolesnik family from Ukraine, new prospects for analyzing the evolution of Ukrainian society, and other timely articles are contained in the Winter 1973 issue of "The Ukrainian Quarterly."

An editorial, "Human Rights—The Lip-Service Ideal in World Power Politics," dwells on the indifference of world governments to the plight of the many nations under the heel of Soviet Russian domination.

In his long and authoritative article, "The Ukrainian Orthodox Church and Moscow: Rebirth and Golgotha," Fedir Bulbenko gives a dramatic account of the rebirth and the destruction of the Ukrainian Autocephalous Orthodox Church in Ukraine in the years 1921-1938.

Escape

Barbara Lee, an American, in her article, "Escape," depicts the dramatic flight to freedom of Volodymyr and Anna Kolesnik, director and soloist, respectively, of the Ukrainian State Opera in Kiev, and their family through several countries in 1972.

Prof. John A. Armstrong, noted American scholar and author of "Ukrainian Nationalism," in his article, "New Prospects for Analyzing the Evolution of Ukrainian Society," dwells competently on the present status of research in Ukrainian sciences, and concludes that despite severe repression by the Communist regime, progress is being made in Ukraine.

In his article, "The Unholy Trinity: Cold War, Peaceful Coexistence and Detente," Prof. Lev E. Dobriansky presents a critical analysis of U.S. foreign policy with respect to the USSR.

Book Reviews

The Winter issue of "The Ukrainian Quarterly" contains several reviews of important books. These include: "A Study of Vasyl Stefanyk" (Yar Slavutych); "The Hapsburg Empire, 1790-1918" (N. Andrusiak); "No Neutrial Ground" and "Communist Penetration of the Third World" (Joseph S. Roucek); "Dzialalnosc Abwery na terenie Polski 1933-1939" (Roman S. Holiat); "The Crippled Giant" (Lev E. Dobriansky); "Subversion" (Walter Dushnyck); "The USSR-German Aggression against Lithuania" (Constantine R. Jurgela); "Zambia—I Changed My Mind" (Kurt Glaser); "Like A Song, Like A Dream" (Marta Sawczak); "The Secret Team: The CIA" (Anthony T. Boucaeren).

Among the "Pertinent Documents" contained in the Winter issue are an "Open Letter to the Congress of the United States," by Andrei Sakharov, and the resolution on the oppression of Ukrainian intellectuals and the opposition to the granting of the "most-favored-nation" status to the USSR by the U.S. Congress, adopted at the mournful rally, held on September 23, 1973 in New York City.

There also is an 8-page "Ukraine in American and Foreign Periodicals" and the "Chronicle of Current Events," comprising select developments among the Ukrainians in the United States, in the free world and developments and events in captive Ukraine.

TUSM Youth Hold East Coast Plenum

YONKERS, N.Y. — The U.S. National Executive Board of the Ukrainian Student Organization of Michnowsky (TUSM) organized a plenum of its eastern branches here at the Ukrainian Youth Center for the purpose of "discussing internal problems of the organization without the presence of adults," said Askold Lozynsky, U.S. president, at the start of the day-long session.

Present at the plenum, held Saturday, February 2, were 29 members representing the New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Yonkers branches, and seven members of the executive board, including: Mr. Lozynsky; Bohdan Hoshowsky, eastern vice-president; Borys Potapenko, western vice-president; Iryna Twerdowsky, secretary; Orest Rusynko, treasurer; Nadia Diakun, press and information; and Lesia Okruch, member.

The principal aim of this board, in its term of office, will be in publishing. So far three projects have been designated. Marking last year's 100th anniversary of the birth of the patron of TUSM, Mykola Michnowsky, and this year's 50th anniversary since his death, the executive board will publish a biography and an anthology of the works of Michnowsky.

Also, a pamphlet containing the works of Nina Strokata-Karavanska, Svyatoslav Karavansky, Evhen Sverstiuk, Valentyn Moroz, Ivan Dzyuba, Mychaylo Osadchy, Yuriy Shukhovych and Vyacheslav Chornovil is slated for publication.

In line with lecture tours of prominent Ukrainian scholars to TUSM branches, their addresses will be published in a separate booklet at the end of the board's term.

At the end of the meeting, Dr. Anatole Bedry delivered a talk on the topic of "The Meaning and Idea of State in Ukraine". The address was an analysis of the works of Ukrainian dissident-intellectuals, with references to Ukrainian nationhood and statehood.

Following the day-long session the executive board met in a private session and discussed their projects and results of this plenum.

A similar gathering is slated for the west in late winter or early spring.

ART EXHIBIT

IRMA OSADSA

Paintings and drawings

YALE UNIVERSITY
School of Art and Architecture
NEW HAVEN, Conn.

Opening February 12, 1974, 8:30 P.M.
Closing February 17, 1974, 5:30 P.M.

Why be on the outside? Join the Ukrainian National Ass'n and read "The Ukrainian Weekly"

AN EVENING WITH CLUB KIEV A DANCE

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15th 1974 8:30 — ?

Ukrainian Center
240 Hope Avenue, Passaic, N.J.
ORCHESTRA MRIA